“ two south suburban politicians used their political funds to donate $2,500 each after receiving the same amount from State Senator Michael Hastings, who likewise received donations from Village Attorney Paul O’Grady. None of those transactions are illegal but the movement of the contributions provided secrecy and deniability for all the parties”

“The only connection between Ford, Robinson, Hastings, and Sandra Bury, is Oak Lawn’s Village Attorney Paul O’Grady. The effect of laundering the money in this way is that O’Grady can deny that his $5,000 donation was connected to the $5,000 that ended up in Bury’s political campaign coffers. A phone call to Howard Robinson on Friday was not returned”
