Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies

Some of our website pages utilise cookies and other tracking technologies.

A cookie is a very small text file that may be used to collect information about web site activity. Some cookies may serve to recall Personal Information previously indicated by a web user. Most browsers allow you to control cookies, including whether or not to accept them and how to remove them.

You can set most browsers to notify you if you receive a cookie or you may choose to block cookies with your browser, but please note that if you choose to block cookies, you may need to re-gain access to certain parts of the web site.

Tracking technologies may record information such as Internet domain and host names; IP addresses; browser software and operating system types; clickstream patterns; and dates and times that our site is accessed.

Our use of cookies and other tracking technologies allows us to improve our web site and your web experience. We may also analyse information that does not contain Personal Information for trend and statistic research.
