NOTE: Altitude sickness can occur to those coming to Colorado. It causes dizziness, nausea, and headaches. The best way to counteract this is to drink LOTS OF WATER and to take it easy for the first day. You might want to Google "Colorado Springs and Altitude Sickness" for more information.

SCHEDULE:

Tuesday, September 22: Check in Day

Wednesday, September 23: Olympic Training Center, Air Force Academy

We begin our day boarding a Gray Line Bus and proceeding to the Olympic Training Center. We will have a "private" tour of the facilities. We will then proceed to the Air Force Academy, which is an active military base, so you will need a government issued valid driver's license or current passport for entry. (If you do not have either one of these forms of identification, please let me know. It takes 3 days to be vetted to allow you on the base.) Lunch is provided at The Falcon Club. After lunch we will visit the Planetarium for a 1:30 p.m. show and then have a guided bus tour of the Academy grounds.

Thursday, September 24: Garden of the Gods, Old Colorado City

Begin our day with a bus tour through the Garden of the Gods. Lunch will be at The Trading Post (lunch on your own). We will then proceed to Old Colorado City for a "walk around" on your own.

BUSINESS MEETING BEGINS AT 4:00 p.m . (Election of Officers.)

Friday, September 25: Free Day with evening Banquet

There are many places you might want to visit in Colorado Springs. For example, Pro Rodeo Hall of Fame, WW II Museum, Firefighters Museum, etc.

Banquet will begin at 6:00 p.m. with pictures at 5:00 p.m. There will NOT be a raffle this year due to gaming laws in Colorado, but we will be doing door prizes at the banquet.

Saturday, September 26:

It's time to say good-bye until 2021. We wish everyone a safe journey home.
