

The Bodhisattva Institute is pleased to announce

Lama Lodu Rinpoche

will be teaching in Tucson November 3 - 6 , 2018

Saturday November 3 and Sunday November 4:

10:00 am - 12 noon and 2:00 - 4:00 pm

Teachings on Creation and Completion Stage Meditation and Post-meditation Sacred View

The teachings of the Vajrayana are based on the Buddha's teachings of the advanced vehicle, but the Buddha presented these teachings in a skillful way compared to the more general teachings. These teachings give detailed instructions on how to engage in Vajrayana practice, which is deity yoga practice. For those who have already received Deity Practice empowerments, Rinpoche's talk will strengthen your practice. To those new to Buddhism, by getting familiar with the idea of the Vajrayana path, later it will be much easier to realize the full scope of the practice.

Interviews with Rinpoche in the evenings, call or email for an appointment

Monday, November 5, 7:00 - 9:00 pm: Taking Refuge, How to be a Buddhist - The importance of, and what it means, to take refuge in The Buddha, Dharma and Sangha; for those new to Buddhism as well as experienced practitioners, this talk will broaden your understanding of this foundation of Buddhist practice.

Interviews with Rinpoche 10:00 -12:00 and 2:00- 4:00, call or email for an appointment

Tuesday, November 6, 7:00 - 9:00 pm: The Habitual Stain of Human Consciousness - Conditioned from before birth we wallow in the cloud of cyclic existence; Tibet's great yogi Milarepa spent years in seclusion to break through the veil of samsara to realize emptiness and become enlightened. What can we learn from his lifetime and put into practice today.
