DISCOVER HOW A YOUNG GIRL WITH BIG DREAMS
OUT-SMARTS HER FEARS AND LEARNS THE WISDOM THAT CONFIDENCE IS A POWERFUL TOOL WHEN IT'S THROWN OUT TO THE GALACTIC-VERSE.

Meet Fevah Seren, a 7500-year-old middle school student, who wants something that is big, bright and, possibly, just out of reach. She dreams of being on the stage of the BIGGEST dance competition across all galaxies - The Great Galactic Dance Competition. This is her destiny. She just knows it.

She has the skill, but does she have the will to make it happen?

MARKET INFORMATION

Tryout is the first book in the series that follows a spirited middle school student, Fevah Seren, as she uncovers truths about herself.

Through a quirky and unique journal narration, Fevah bonds with readers by sharing relatable stories that expose her strengths, weaknesses, biases, and beliefs. The stories are key messages for children aged 8 plus to dream big and dream wide.

If you are a fan of the positive messaging behind books such as The Miscalculation of Lightning Girl, Bunheads, The Night Diary, or enjoy the witty and zany characters of A Mermaid in Middle Grade, Judy Moody, Dork Diaries then The Great-Galactic Dance Competition books will captivate your imagination and motivate your ambitions

Supporting the book is a must-have for children in competitive programs, primary and middle school teachers, dance school coordinators and parents/caregivers who support their enthusiastic children.

The Book will be available through Retailers, Amazon, Libraries and from the Author.

Book 2 will be published Fall 2023

AUTHOR BIO

K.B. Lacey is a Canadian BIPOC author. Her parents immigrated from India to Canada in the mid-70s. She lived in a predominantly European neighbourhood and stood out. Not only because of her cultural differences, but also because she was very tall!

K.B. Lacey started writing in grade 4 short stories that evolved into teenage angst filled poetry. She found her outlet for the emotional rollercoaster and continued to write on and off for years, but she lacked the courage to publish any of it.

She finally found a character with a storyline that she can relate to and pushed through just like she was telling her character to do to launch her debut Children Middle School Fiction book series The Great Galactic Dance Competition. Tryout is her first book in the series.
