

I Found The Beach Deserted Here

by Ted Olsson

I found the beach deserted here
A far-eyed reach of sand and sea
Waves and dunes to persevere

Serious thoughts brought me here
Peaceful there with paths to see
I found the beach deserted here

Sea air and sound hold rhythms near Strides in sand set a mind free
Waves and dunes to persevere

I tossed aside my thoughts unclear
The noise from multitudes recede
I found the beach deserted here

I searched for answers to appear
And reasons to create and be
Waves and dunes to persevere

A steadfast love quelled my fear
Spirit with truth the gracious key
I found the beach deserted here
Waves and dunes to persevere.
