

Summer's Splendor

by Ted Olsson

Riding up the coast
On a crystal summer day

Bright beach towns host
Slowing time along the way

Surfers, joggers, strollers, rollers
All pursue the sand sea scene

And happiness bolsters
A pedal pushing scheme

To experience peaceful times
Seen here with multitudes

A beach journey by design
Families, friends, couples and you

The miles slip away
Traffic noise can't undo

Life will with spirit stays
While one quietly passes through

Resting with a lighthouse view
Easy days to long remember

Riders following coastal cues
To find this Summer's splendor.
