

Release of Liability

Drama Kids Theatre Guild cannot be held liable for any illness, sickness, allergic reaction, or any other medical situation that could be contracted through surface, air and/or group situations. Please understand that we are all doing all we can to prevent the spread. We cannot make any guarantees knowing anyone could get sick and spread germs. This is not only for the recent COVID-19, but for any common cold or flu.

By signing below, you agree not to hold Drama Kids Theatre Guild liable for any illness, medical bills due to testing or examination or any other health related issues that may arise by being in public places with groups of people.
