

LAP FY 26 Impact Report

A Year of Transformative Scale

375

Families fed through
essential relief

240

Toys and winter garments
distributed to youth

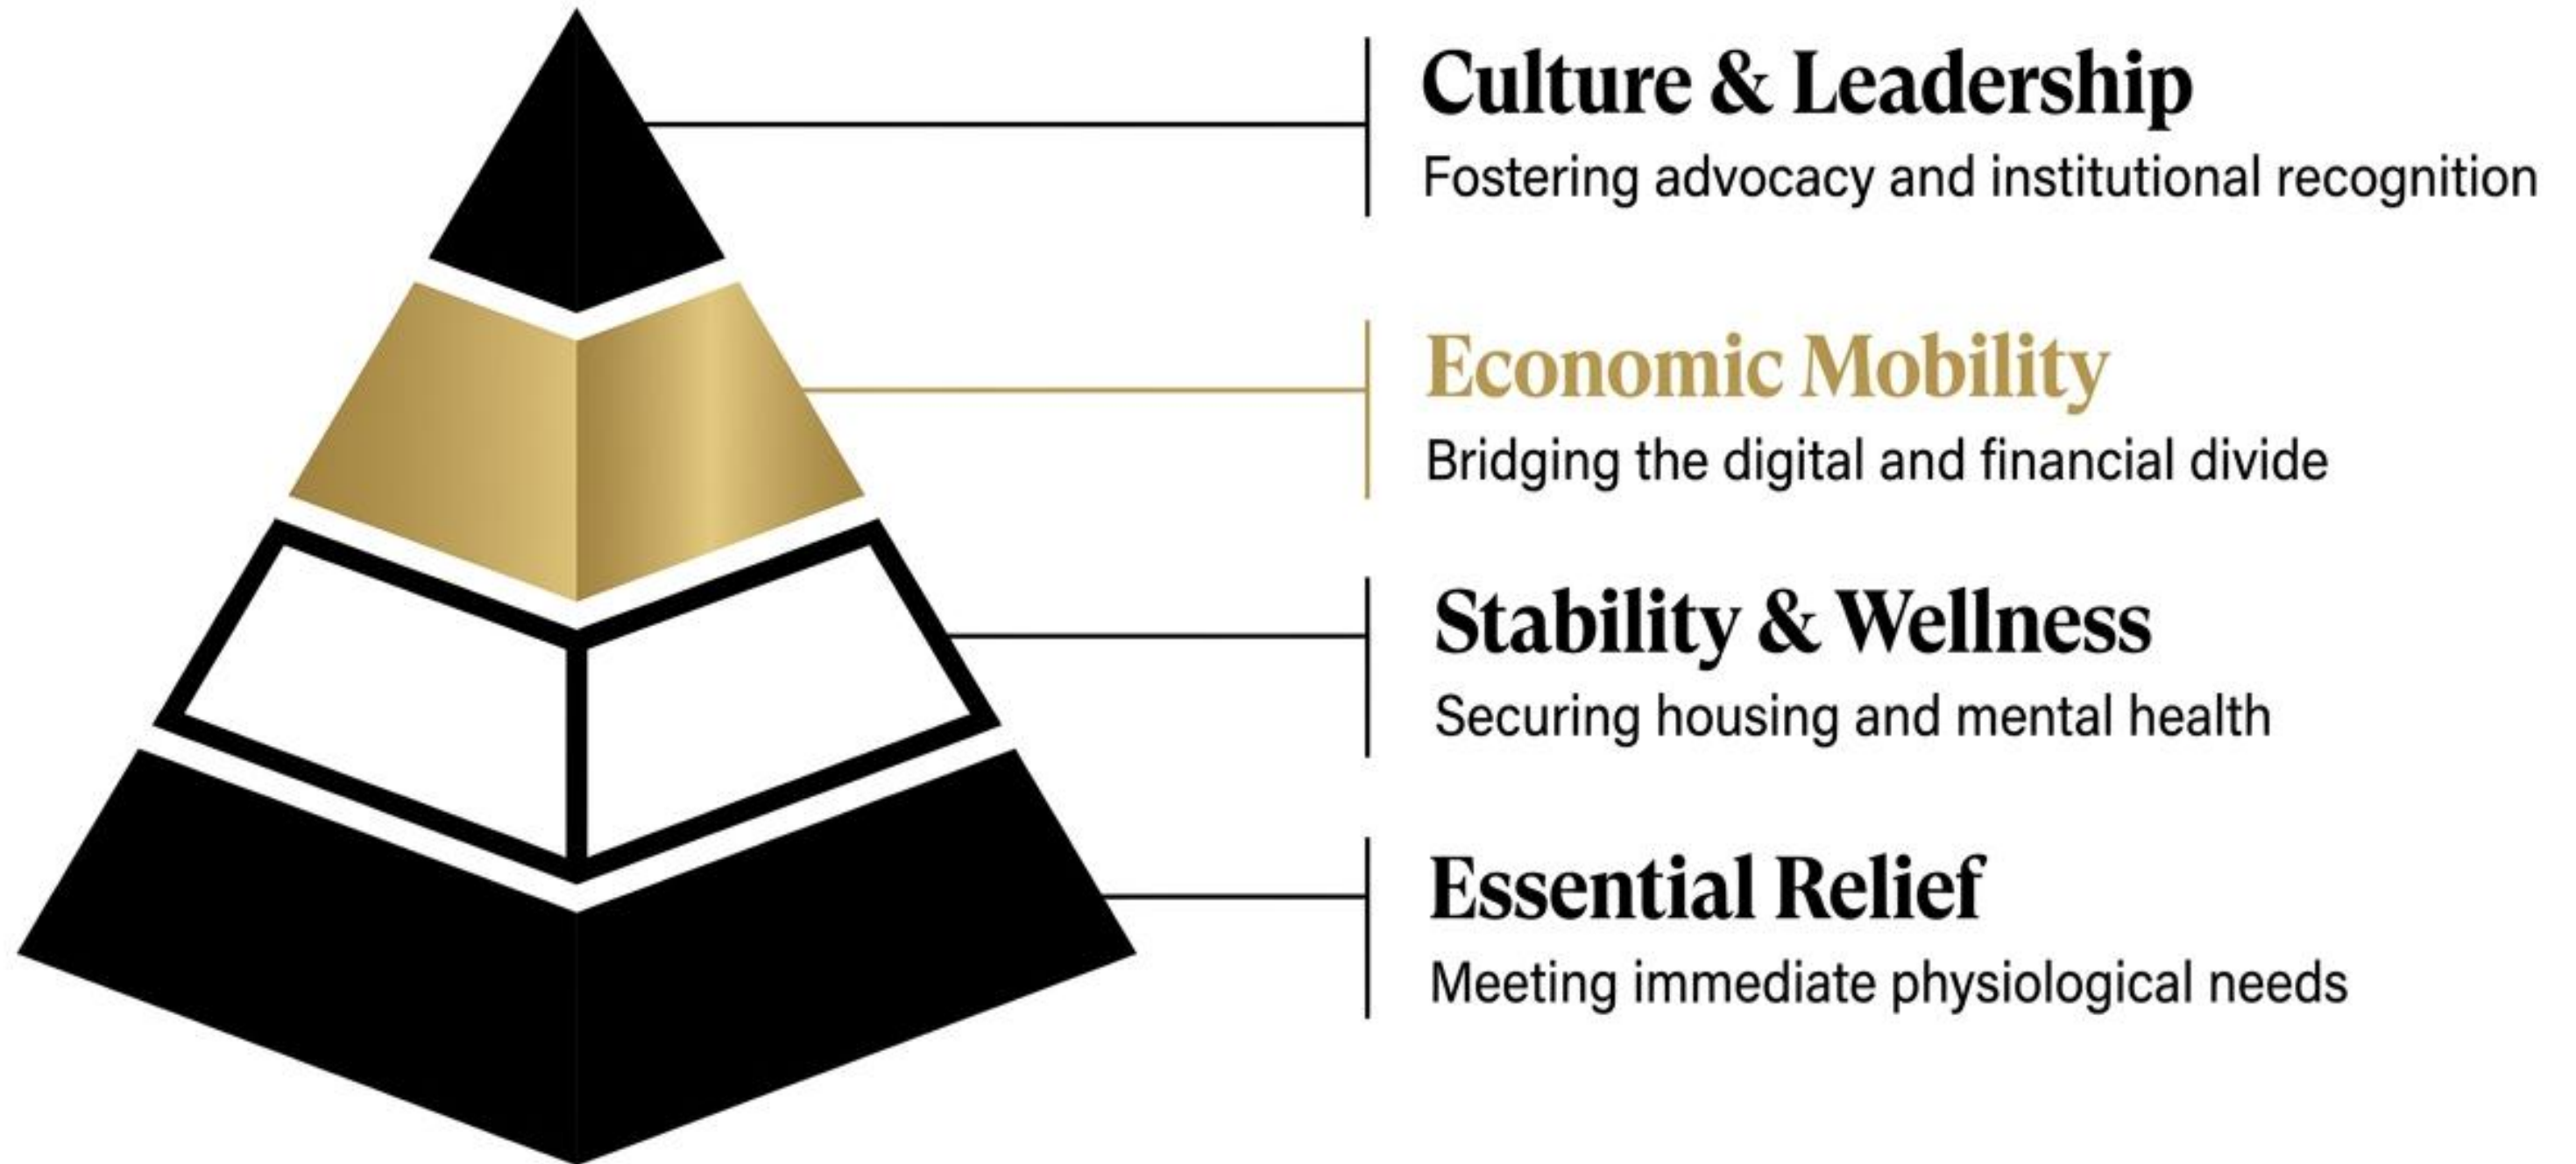

40

MacBooks granted
for digital equity

23

Clients provided with dedicated housing education

The Ecosystem of Empowerment

Pillar I: Essential Community Relief

375 Families

A Season to Be Thankful
(Food distribution)

50 Items

Melena Casa (Cover the City
event - socks, hats,
gloves for homeless)

240 Youth

Wrapped in Love
(Holiday giveaway
featuring Grinch)

82 Children

Back-to-School
(Goal setting day)

Pillar II: Housing & Financial Stability

Pillar III: Youth & Justice-Involved Empowerment

Prevention

25 Children

Young Entrepreneur Boss Kids
Business Bash (equipped with toys, apparel, school supplies)

Early Intervention

3 Pounds of Pressure delivered at Charlestown Early Adult Center

Intervention

10 Participants

Fall and Spring My Successful
Blueprint cohorts

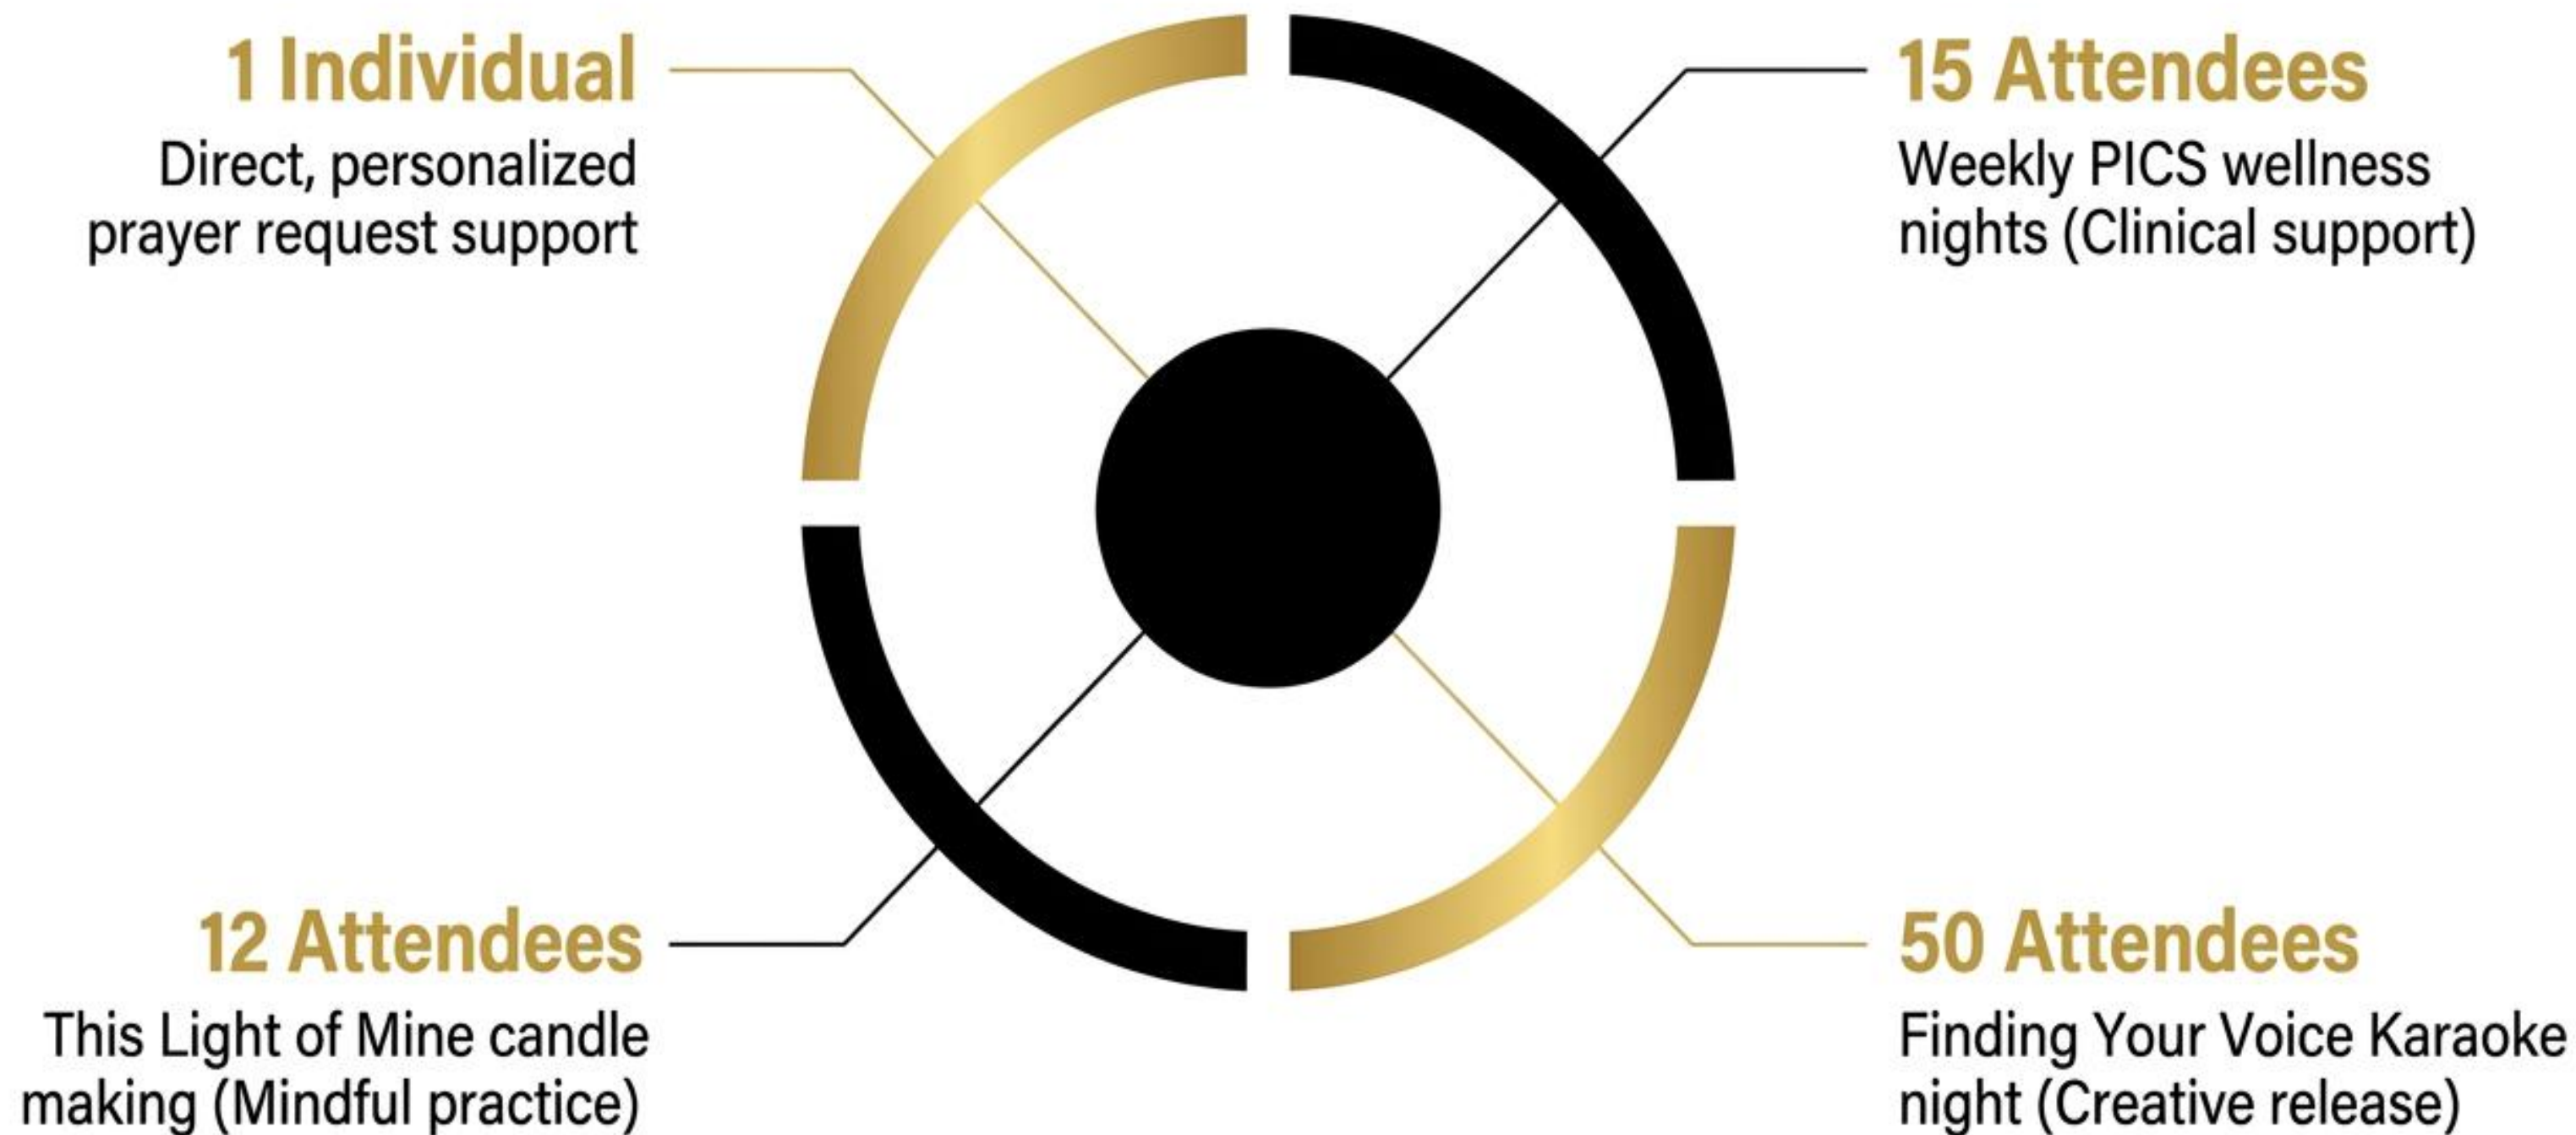

6 Graduates

My Successful Blueprint at South
Bay House of Correction

Systemic Reach

3 Pounds of Pressure at Harvard
Street DYS

Pillar IV: Mental Wellness & Creative Expression

Pillar V: Digital Equity & Access

4 Quarters

Let's Get Technical cohorts held year-round

10 Participants

Enrolled in each quarterly class

40 MacBooks

Distributed directly to students. Every participant leaves fully equipped to bridge the digital divide.

Pillar VI: Economic Mobility & Business Creation

Digital Presence

5 Websites

Created from scratch
for LAP clients

Market Entry

4 Clients

Successfully launched
independent businesses

Ecosystem Growth

2 Non-profits

Received strategic consultation to scale
impact

The Dual Engine of Impact

Direct Community Relief (Immediate)

Addressing acute scarcity:
Food for 375 families, winter gear for the homeless, and emergency move-in financial support.

Systemic Economic Empowerment (Long-Term)

Addressing chronic inequities:
Business incubation, technological hardware distribution, and restorative justice programming at South Bay House of Correction.

Balancing immediate compassion with structural economic architecture.

Leadership, Recognition & Institutional Trust

Academic Authority

Executive Director featured as a speaker at Northeastern University and Tufts University.

Individual Civic Recognition

Co-Founder awarded the prestigious EXTRAordinary Woman Award by Mayor Wu

Organizational Endorsement

LAP received an official Certificate of Recognition from the office of Mayor Wu

We have the blueprint.
We have the community trust. Partner with us to scale systemic impact.