PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi and Welcome to the new year of the Letort Quilt Guild.

This is Sandy Kohler and Lin Keller who are the co-presidents of the guild for the year. We are really excited for the year that we will be having together.

First of all, we really hated to cancel the bus shop hop last month. But, we did not have enough participants, and if we had still gone, we would have had to take approximately $700 from the club monies. That was with taking a smaller bus, but the price per participant goes up as the bus size goes down. So, we made the decision to cancel. Now to the future – forget about the past!

Our first meeting will be Monday, September 16, and will be set up a little differently than in previous years. In the newsletter will be the schedule of programs for the year, and we will talk very briefly on those. Also in this newsletter are our officers, and we will introduce them. This will also be a very brief presentation. Please plan to attend. We will give a quick rundown of the workshops and community days also.

We also have some positions that need to be filled. Presently, they are co-president elect (Melissa Greevy is a co), one more member for the Program Committee, Bingo Committee for 2026, BOM, Animal Beds Committee, and then Nominating Committee for next year's Executive Board. Contact Lin or me about any questions on these positions.

SECOND CHANCE AUCTION

PHOTO DIRECTORY

As I have looked over the previous year's information that I have received, I am amazed at how many people it takes to run a guild. The participation from the membership of the guild has decreased in recent years and someone else either had to pick up the slack or it did not get done. Lin and I are going to start a little section in each newsletter titled Buttoned-Up. These are small tasks that have been completed to make the guild run more smoothly. Be sure to check it out.

The workshops will be open for signing up at the first meeting. We are going to keep the meeting on the shorter side so you can get all your sign-ups completed.

You cannot believe what all Lin & I have going through our pea-sized brains (at least mine!) I am looking forward to continuing learning about the club and its goings-on and getting to know each one of you.

Sandy

BUTTONED UP

Throughout this guild year, Sandy and I are planning to write a series of articles to let you know the things we, with the help of members, are doing to tidy up processes and help the guild run more smoothly.

A request for reimbursement will now be required for a refund from the treasurer. You can find the form on our website under Resources. Having a consistent form attached to paperwork will make Becki's job easier and that of the auditors.

Each station that collects money at the meetings, such as membership dues, retreat fees, etc. will have a receipt book to provide a receipt for cash payment to the member and the treasurer. This written record will help eliminate mix-ups over cash payments.

SECOND CHANCE AUCTION

Quilters! The Second Chance & Silent Auction is the second meeting of the guild year on Sunday, October 6th! All the items to be auctioned off come from the members. Please bring your donated items to the October 6, 2024, meeting. No item is too big or too small. New, used, unfinished projects, books, magazines, knick-knacks; we take it all. So as you start your fall cleaning be sure to set aside the things you can bring.

On the day of the auction, bags will be placed with each item or group of items, you will put your ticket(s) in the bag of the items you are interested in. We will randomly draw the winning ticket from the bag and the winner gets to take the item home. Items for the Silent Auction are displayed on the stage and you write down the amount you want to pay for the item. There is a limited amount of time available at the start of the meeting to bid. Once the Silent Auction closes the high bidder wins! Tickets for the Second Chance items are 25 cents each or one-yard of tickets for $5.00. We will be pre-selling tickets at the September meeting if you want to get a head start on putting your name on the back of the tickets. Return address labels are a great way to do that. All proceeds benefit the guild's educational fund. Start collecting your items! -Donna Lohman

Thanks to the wonderful response last year, we're excited to bring back the LeTort Quilters photo directory! The directory helps connect faces to names, making our guild even more welcoming and familiar.

This year, you have more options: you can use the same photo as last year, get a new photo taken at a guild meeting, or send a photo via email. As before, we'll compile all the photos into a digital directory, which will be emailed to you. You can save and print the directory at your convenience. We respect your privacy—your picture will only be included if you wish. If you'd rather not share a photo of yourself, feel free to send a picture of one of your quilts instead.

To participate, email your photo to Sarah Burkett at sbrktt@gmail.com. Please include your name in the email. If you find it time consuming to send a photo, we've got you covered! During our October meetings, a photo station will be set up, and you can have your picture taken.

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact Sarah Burkett at sbrktt@gmail.com or Jane Shull at ibentravlin@comcast.net.

Bees

Please join us for the Wool Bee on 2nd Mondays and the Handwork Bee on 4th Mondays, at the Bosler Library in Carlisle. 1:30-4pm.

Any questions please ask Lin Keller (717) 979-0506 or Cathy Irwin (717) 919-8470. Bring any project that you are working on!

Membership

Welcome to the new quilt guild year! If you haven't already renewed your membership for 2024-2025, now is the time to do so. You can find the form on the letortquilters.com website under Resources and mail your form in, or you can pick one up and renew at the September meeting. Be sure to renew in order to keep receiving the newsletter.

HELPING THE COMMUNITY

FIDDLE (FIDGET) QUILTS

1. Terry Stibrany has volunteered to serve as co-chair of the Fiddle Quilts Committee. We will be reaching out for a volunteer for each meeting to support the fiddle table with us. We thank everyone in advance for all they can do to help us. Thank you, Terry, for volunteering; I am looking forward to working with you!
2. Wednesday, August 28, service workday to sew soft books.
3. Friday September 20, 2024, will be a sewing day at the home of Jane Shull to create 12 fiddle quilts for a group of children with special needs at the Bermudian Springs School District. Wanda Shaffer's daughter works for their Special Education Department and will be our contact for delivery. RSVP to Jane ibentravlin@comcast.net
4. Fiddle quilt invitation - September, 2024, through May, 2025: We would like to invite each member to complete sewing one fiddle quilt kit. Kits will be available at all meetings/events or by contacting Jane or Terry.
5. We do have a number of completed fiddle quilts if you know of someone who would enjoy one or if you know additional care facilities that may like them for their residents. All ideas welcome! Deliveries will be made the end of October.
6. This year when fiddle quilts are completed, we would like them to be shown during Show & Share before they are turned in. We can help you.

Thank you! Jane Shull & Terry Stibrany

Comfort Quilts

Thanks to many helping hands at the cutting day in August, we are ready with a good supply of comfort quilt kits to start off the guild year! Now it's time to get them stitched up!

We also have quite a supply of completed quilts that need to get delivered to the agencies we serve in the community. If you think you would like to help with this important part of the process, please see Carlene or Sue.

We hope to have a small supply of comfort quilt kits at retreat, in case you run out of your own projects to stitch!

In an effort to help make the comfort quilt process a little easier, we are going to try posting pictures of completed comfort quilts on the guild website. Some of the patterns we use have seen multiple copies made, and the graphics, in particular, have become a little unclear. If you would like to help, as you finish a comfort quilt, please take a picture of it on your phone, and send it to Sarah Burkett at sbrktt@gmail.com. Include the name of the pattern, and if there is a notation about the maker of the pattern or adaptation of a pattern, please include that. It will be fun to see how all our beautiful, donated fabric gets put together!! Thanks in advance for your help with this.

So long for now,
Carlene and Sue
