PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello quilters,

It was nice to hear the hum of quilters talking and laughing at our first meeting of the guild year on Monday, September 16. It was also fun to look forward to a new year and eat chocolate cake.

From the business side of the guild...this past summer, Joe Buckley filed paperwork for the guild to change from being incorporated with no members to being incorporated with members, which was a change long overdue. More recently, he filed paperwork for a change of address for the guild's registered office. The address will be Lynndee Nelson's, our current secretary, and we will be sure to change it each time our secretary changes. The board is also working on the final copy of our new by-laws, and you will see them in your inbox soon. You can look forward to a very important date for members to vote on adopting the updated by-laws.

Looking ahead, this month, we have Second Chance and Silent Auction. Don't forget to use your tickets from the past year's 50-50, shop, and name tag drawings. And, bring lots of stuff! This is a great time to clean out your sewing room. Tickets will be on sale the day of the auction for 25 cents per ticket or $5.00 per yard. At our Monday meeting, we will host Jean Impey with her lecture, Creativity: Has Someone Stolen Yours? Jean is here from California and is in the area to teach classes at Half Moon Handwerks. Will you be in her Rustic Sun or Fabulous Faces workshop?

CHRISTMAS ORNAMENT

RAFFLE QUILT

Also at the Monday meeting, we will start the year-end challenge. I think it will be a fun one, and I am looking forward to it. Sandy Moore will have raffle quilt kits available at that meeting, and we will vote on which organization will receive the proceeds. The kits are due back at the Sunday, February 2, meeting, which will be our first in-person meeting in 2025. At the end of the month, we will have a service day to make Valentine postcards to exchange with the Appleseed Quilters Guild in Fort Wayne, Indiana. We are looking to make 100 valentines to box up and mail to them at the beginning of January, and they, in turn, will be mailing 100 to us. Look on Pinterest for ideas and inspiration. Marcia and Melissa made a couple of samples that will be posted in this newsletter if there is space available, and you can look for pics of them on our Facebook page.

Have you seen the new website? It has a clean, modern look and is easy to navigate. You can look forward to more info being posted for you!

Later in the newsletter, you will find a list of most of our guild presidents for the past 40 years. Several members, including Cathie Walker, Sandy Kohler, Cathy Irwin, Sandy Moore, myself, and maybe a few I don't know about, have worked on this list to try to fill in the blanks. The guild years 1991-92 through 2002-03 are a little iffy, so if you can fill in blanks or confirm the names, that would be great! Email your info to me and Sandy.

We have filled one of our open positions! Deb Lohman is going to co-chair bingo with Julie Rhen, so we can look forward to an exciting, well-organized bingo 2026. We have a few open positions: one or two workshop registration coordinators for the current year, treasurer for next year, and newsletter proofreader for next year. Vicki got me straightened out on the proper job titles...I finally get it! My apologies for all my bumbling around on that. Look for brief job descriptions later in the newsletter.

Last, I want to address your concerns about workshop supply lists being available online only. That was my decision, and I completely own it. My reasons follow. First, we have our website to post materials so everyone has easy access whether they sign up in person or by mail. And, the posters on the workshop board have QR codes to take you directly to the website. Second, with skyrocketing costs, it is not fair to expect the workshop coordinators—or anyone else—to print the materials. Also, as you are planning for workshops, you will need a color copy to help pick your fabrics. Sending the pics out for color copying would take time, and it is an expense that would be passed on to the attendees.

Wow! I am long-winded today. I think it means we have a lot going on in this guild. That makes me smile.

Lin

BUTTONED UP

Color pics of comfort quilts and fiddle quilts are coming to the website over the next few months to provide color references when making the quilts as well as providing inspiration.

The board voted to sign a five-year contract with GoDaddy that holds the web hosting service price, gives us a new website builder software, bundles the SSL certificate so site visitors will no longer get the "site is not secure..." message, and includes the ability to create a member log-in area. Whew! Thanks to Sarah for the research and her techie abilities that saves the guild about $700.00.

HELPING THE COMMUNITY

FIDDLE (FIDGET) QUILTS

1. Update in fiddle quilt committee chairs - Terry Stibrany and Wanda Shaffer have joined me as chairs. Thank you very much, Terry and Wanda. I am looking forward to working with BOTH of you!

2. Our current outreach project is to make 12 fiddle quilts for children with special needs at the Bermudian Springs School District. Wanda Shaffer's daughter works for their Special Education Department and will be our contact for delivery. We have the kits designed and bagged for this project. See picture of first one completed! Each quilt will have a soft book attached. If you can help us sew one kit by the October 21st meeting, please contact us. We will get a kit to YOU asap!

3. FIDDLE QUILT INVITATION - Sept 2024 thru May 2025! We invite each member to complete sewing ONE fiddle quilt kit! Kits will be available at ALL meetings/events or by contacting Jane, Terry, or Wanda.

4. We do have a number of completed fiddle quilts. Please contact us if you know of someone who would enjoy one or if you know memory care facilities that may like them for their residents. All ideas welcome! Deliveries will be made at the end of October.

Thank you! Jane Shull, Terry Stibrany & Wanda Shaffer

Comfort Quilts

Kits will continue to be available at our table at the meetings, and we appreciate your continued support.

In an effort to streamline the distribution of the quilts, we are asking for people who are willing to drop them off at one of our receiving agencies. We usually package them in bags of five, so they are manageable to transport, and you can take them with you directly from a meeting. We have a list of recipients and contact information, so you can see if there is an agency near you. And as always, if you know of a need for comfort quilts somewhere, please let us know.

So long for now,
Carlene and Sue

2026 Raffle Quilt

Help is needed for members to complete a block (appliqué or pieced). The appliqué block is based on the one designed by Karen Buckley for the guild's 2002 raffle quilt. Kits will be available at the October meetings. If you have any questions, contact Sandy Moore at (717) 439-2427.
