PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Maybe this time we can say in our newsletter that Winter is over. But, who knows when April weather has been so ambivalent about whether Spring has truly arrived yet! It sure did arrive on April 18th, at least for the day! Bingo was super successful because our volunteers showed up and showed out, AGAIN!!!!. We heard many compliments on the execution of the event day. Those of us who did work leading up to event day know that there was a great deal of effort over many months to create the experience had by our guests. Kudos to you all who made it happen! We are grateful for the efforts which made it a success, and which provide much needed funds for our continued operation. Thanks so much!

Bingo was closely followed by a superior lecture and workshop by Dave Sirota. We have not had such laughter at a meeting in a long time. We were also blessed to see some members who had no or little experience paper piecing build their confidence, even before lunchtime. Others with some paper piecing experience learned a technique new to them, which offers even more accuracy and less frustration. It was truly a workshop that benefited all of the class. It was also a good illustration of how important our fundraising efforts are to guild activities.

We have a lot coming up soon with Second Chance Auction, Raffle Quilt drawing, May retreat, May Zoom Board meeting, Challenge Quilt Show and Share, the All-Star Sampler, and the year-end pot luck. Details are in this newsletter.

YEAR END CELEBRATION

SECOND CHANCE AUCTION

---

We are wrapping up our 41st year. The only way we can keep going is with the combined efforts of our 130+ members. If you want us to continue to have lectures, classes, provide numerous comfort quilts and other activities, we must have folks to fill vacant leadership and volunteer positions. Many positions can be shared. We must have our nominations committee team in place working to fill those spots. Please be a part of our team to keep moving forward. If you like variety, we have enough opportunities to volunteer so that you could do something different every year.

Lynndee and Melissa

MINUTES

April 20, 2026

The meeting was called to order by Co-President Melissa Greevy at 7:00 PM

We were joined by David Sirota and if you missed the meeting, you missed a great time. Not only is he a very talented quilt designer, but he was a great storyteller and comedian.

He was introduced to the basics of quilting by a friend in the late 1990's and wanted to learn more. When he was introduced to paper piecing, he was hooked, but he thought the process could be simplified. That's when the "Sirota No More Tears Paper Piecing" method was born. He also made us feel better about our "faults" as quilters: 1-we are Type A personalities, 2-we're a little OCD and 3-we are hoarders in all things quilt related.

New Business

Quilt Bingo – Julie R. gave a big thank you to the entire guild for all the hard work that went into pulling off another great Bingo. Becki D. gave the final total of over $11,000 profit. WOW!!!

End of Year Celebration – The guild is providing hot dogs, buns and bottled water. Sandy K. has a sign-up sheet for the remaining food items for the June 7th meeting. Please sign up to bring something. We will not be playing games, but we can spend some time socializing following a brief business meeting. We will also have a Patriotic Quilt Show and Share to celebrate America's 250th!

Raffle Quilt – Sandy M. asked for a show of hands to see how much interest there was to do another hand appliqued quilt. Many hands were raised.

There was also discussion about maybe having a workshop over the summer for anyone that wants to learn or better their applique skills.

Summer Faire – Pat LaMarche from the Charles Bruce Foundation asked the guild if we would like to participate at Summer Faire by quilting in public. Many members have volunteered to participate. The quilts are donated to homeless people through Memorialblanket.org. The event takes place on Dickinson College campus. The date is unknown as of now.

NICU HEARTS NEEDED - LET'S HELP AGAIN

We've received word that UPMC is running low on NICU hearts, and they've reached out to see if we can help replenish their supply. These small projects continue to make a meaningful difference for families with babies in the NICU. It's a simple project, but one that carries a lot of comfort and care.

If you are able, please consider making a few hearts over the coming weeks so we can support this need. Instructions can be found on the LeTort Quilters website (www.letortquilters.com) under Resources menu item - the Heart-to-Heart program link. Every contribution helps, and as always, our group's generosity makes a real impact.

Thank you for continuing to share your time and talent in such a thoughtful way.

COMFORT QUILTS

There will be a Cutting Day at Carlene's on Wednesday, May 6th, from 9 am until about 3 pm. We meet at Carlene's home, 330 Wagners Lane, Newville, PA 17241. If you can join the fun, please bring a cutting mat, ruler, and rotary cutter. If you are staying through lunch, bring a packed lunch.

We are always looking for help quilting the tops, so if you need practice with your machine quilting (long arm or domestic machine), here's your chance. See us at the meeting to pick up a pieced top.

We can also use help delivering finished quilts to the local agencies. Perhaps there is a destination near your home. If you are interested in helping with this, see Carlene or Sue. Thanks again for all you do.

Sew long for now,
Carlene and Sue
