Kitchen Makeover

We have transformed many kitchens in the past, offering a cost-effective solution that elevates your space instead of opting for a full replacement. To transform the kitchen, we carefully take the cabinet doors and drawers to our spray booth, where they receive a stunning, high-quality finish. The carcass and end panels are meticulously painted on-site, showcasing our commitment to precision. The kitchen and surrounding areas will be protected to ensure the high-quality work we produce is reflected without disrupting the surrounding space.

Veneer Yellowing

Is your veneer showing signs of yellowing? At M&M, we specialise in restoring kitchen and cabinetry veneers that have been discoloured due to prolonged exposure to ultraviolet UV light. Our restoration process begins by carefully stripping away the old, damaged finish to reveal the underlying veneer. Next, we skillfully tone the veneer to achieve a seamless match with the surrounding areas that remain undamaged. Finally, we apply a high-quality, UV-resistant coating that not only protects your veneer from future discolouration but also enhances its overall durability and lustre. With our expertise, we can bring your cabinetry back to its original beauty.
