Three women chosen for leadership program

COLLEGE STATION – Twenty-five agriculture professionals, including three women from the Big Country, have been selected for the Governor Dolph Briscoe Jr. Texas Agricultural Lifetime Leadership, or TALL, program.

The two-year program, led by the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service, is an intensive study of agricultural and food industry professionals and their families. The program includes seminars, seminars with government leaders, and a field trip to the University of Texas at Austin, Kiewicz said.
