Use contractions where possible. by Claudia Pesce 800,945 views When teaching the Present Simple, the ultimate goal is to make sure your students understand that it's used to describe routines, habits, daily activities, and general truths. It is also important is the contrast between the Present Simple and the Present Progressive. This series of steps will guide you towards teaching the Present Simple and covers function, conjugation, and form. How To Proceed 1 Introduce an actionExplain that it is basically using a verb to tell about things that happen in the present, like every day, every week, or every month, and is made from the present tense of the verb be and the –ing form of a verb. Pick up a newspaper and pretend to read it.
Ask your students what you're doing. They'll say, "You're reading a newspaper."T: "What newspaper am I reading?" S: "You're reading The New York Times." 2 Introduce Present Simple - First person singularFor example, tell your students, "I read The New York Times every day." Make a list of the things you do every day as a routine: I have breakfast at 7.
I go to work at 9. I have lunch at 12. I go home at 5. I watch TV before dinner.

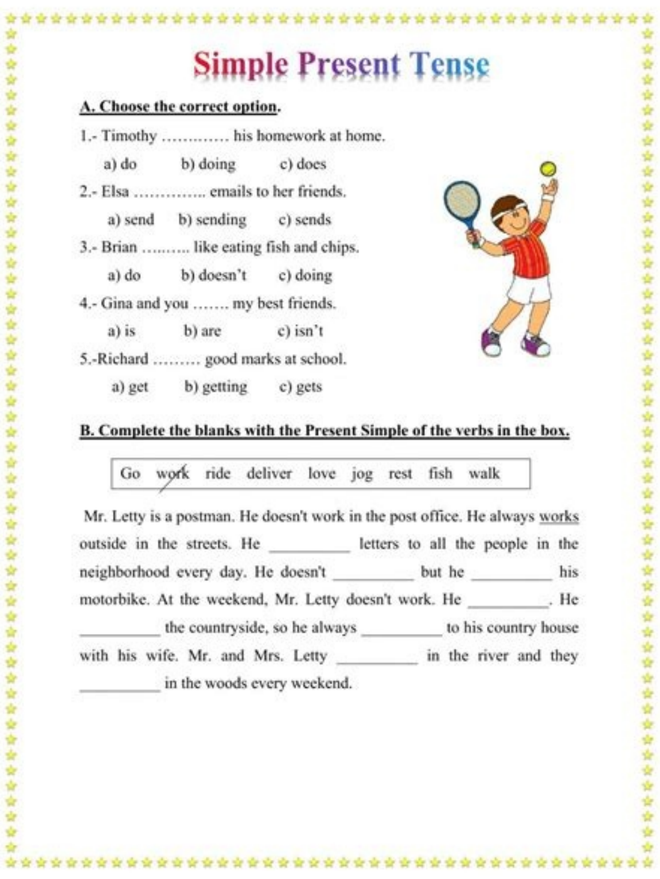

Present simple
Questions & short answers

A. Write the questions, use the cues
Example: he/ play/ football?
Does he play football?
1. they/ like/ oranges ?
2. you / get up / early ?
3. your mom/ like / coffee ?
4. school / start / at 8 o'clock?
5. we / go / to the cinema?
6. Susan / tidy / her room/ every Monday?
7. Tim and Tom / eat / apples?
8. you / speak/ French?

B. Complete the sentences using do / don't / does / doesn't.
Example: Do they go to school on Saturdays?
No, they don't.
1. _____ you live in Madrid?
No, _____ .
2. _____ Petra live with her parents?
Yes, _____.

No, _____.
6. _____ your mom work in a bank?
Yes, _____.
7. _____ you clean the windows?
No, _____.
8. _____ Tom listen to music?
Yes, _____.

Make sure your students understand that you do this on a daily or weekly basis; these are habitual actions. Go around the class and have students tell you what they do everyday or what some of their habits are. They should give more examples in the first person singular. 3 Introduce Present Simple – Second person singular Say: "I watch TV before dinner.
Sarah, you read a book". Go around the class giving examples like, "I go to work at 9. You go to school." Face each of your students and state a general truth: T: "John, you live in Queens." John (to teacher): "You live in Queens, too." T: "Sally, you have a dog." Sally (to teacher): "You have a cat". Split your students up into pairs and have them give each other statements in the second person singular. 4 Introduce Present Simple – Third person singular Say: "I watch TV before finner. Sarah reads a book." Make sure students notice that you've added the s for the third person singular. Give more examples with other students, and introduce the irregular verbs: John goes to work at 8. Sally has lunch at 1. Students provide more examples from the information previously shared by their classmates. 5 Do the same for the plural persons Ask who lives in Queens and ask them to stand up. Then point to yourself and those standing and say: "We live in Queens." Ask who lives in the Bronx and ask them to stand up. Address those who are standing and say: "You live in the Bronx." Point to your group and say, "We live in Queens." Ask who lives in Manhattan and point to that group and say: "They live in Manhattan." 6 Introduce Present Simple – Negative Make a statement in the affirmative, then make one in negative with don't. T: I live in Queens, I don't live in the Bronx.
Ask students to do the same presenting first an affirmative, then a negative. Practice all persons except the third person singular.
7 Introduce Present Simple – Negative (third person singular) Make a statement about a student, then make one in negative form using doesn't. T: Alex watches TV before dinner. He doesn't read a book. Ask students to do the same by using the information previously shared by their classmates.
8 Introduce Present Simple – Questions Make a statement about yourself. Then ask a student a question to introduce 'do'. T: I walk to school. John, do you walk to school?
Walk around the classroom asking students questions and teaching them to answer, "Yes, I do" or "No, I don't." Do the same for all persons except third person singular. 9 Introduce Present Simple – Questions (third person singular) Contrast students' habits. Make a statement about one, then ask about another student: T: John walks to school. Does Sarah walk to school?
Walk around the classroom asking questions with does, and teach students to answer "Yes, he does" "No, he doesn't". q Expand and practice: Present Simple Excercises Practice all persons and forms. Ask open-ended questions. Introduce more verbs. Where do you live? Where does she work? How many languages do you speak?
