RULES & REGULATIONS

Greeting

Eighty years ago, a group of businessmen, farmers and the agricultural community put together a little money and a lot of effort to found the Northwest Junior Livestock Show.

Goal

To invest in the future of agriculture through youth; offering an educational experience in selecting, feeding and marketing the finished product. Thus, this show is an investment in the future and contribution to that future. With this goal reaffirmed by all who support the show, now and for the past 80 years, we grow and mature with new enthusiasm to continue what a group of farsighted and dedicated men started.

Source of Funds

The Northwest Junior Livestock Show is one of twelve fairs in the State of Washington devoted entirely to YOUTH. The facilities are provided by the Washington State Fair. The funds are collected and disseminated to the fairs in our state on a merit rating system. In addition to state funding, the board of the NWJLS actively seeks fund-raising from private sponsors to support the show and awards.

Legal & Liabilities

Each NWJLS exhibitor of cattle hereby expressly assumes all risk of any transmission of animal disease, as well as for any animal death, illness or injury that may result from the housing of lambs during the NWJLS. Additionally, each NWJLS exhibitor indemnify and hold harmless the NWJLS and the Washington State Fair for any and all liability that may arise as the result of any transmission of disease, as well as for any death, illness or injury that may result from housing the lambs as such.

The Washington State Fair does not provide any livestock exhibitors (including their family/friends), 4-H clubs or FFA chapters with individual insurance coverage while at the Washington State Fair, including the Spring Fair. Livestock exhibitors are solely responsible to obtain their own insurance coverage for these events in such amounts and on such terms as the exhibitors (including their family/friends), 4-H clubs and FFA chapters deem necessary in their sole discretion.

Each year, the Northwest Junior Livestock Show, Inc., hosts one or more livestock shows for Youth, 4-H and FFA members who qualify to compete in accordance with the policies, procedures and rules set forth herein. Hereinafter, the Northwest Junior Livestock Show, Inc. and said shows will be referred to as the NWJLS. Each participant in the NWJLS hereby agrees that the NWJLS, to include its board members, officers, management and staff, is not responsible for any liability arising from or at any NWJLS event. Each participant, by becoming involved with an NWJLS event, hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the NWJLS, to include its board members, management and staff, for any such liability whatsoever, whether at common law, by statute, by administrative rule, or in equity. Each such participant likewise agrees that any dispute regarding the NWJLS, to include these rules, policies, procedures, livestock judging, meat judging, sale order and any other matter pertaining to the NWJLS, shall be determined by a majority vote of a quorum of at least five NWJLS board members. The result of said vote shall be final and binding.

By unanimous action January 14, 2002, the Board of Directors of the Northwest Junior Livestock Show, Inc. (NWJLS) enacts the following policy and directs that it shall be published annually in the "Rules & Regulations" show catalog and information book. In accordance with federal and state laws, the Northwest Junior Livestock Show, Inc., (NWJLS) prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, marital status, or disability. In addition, the NWJLS prohibits harassment; in particular, harassment having the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's participation or involvement in NWJLS activities, or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or learning environment. This policy shall apply equally to all persons involved with the NWJLS including, but not limited to, youth participants, leaders, parents or other responsible adults, spectators, judges, managers and administrators. The Northwest Junior Livestock Show maintains an open-door policy regarding these issues. Should you encounter behavior you believe is prohibited by this policy, or should you feel you have been the subject of harassment or discrimination, please contact the Show Management or a Member of the Board of Directors.
