

NORTHWEST JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SHOW

ESTABLISHED 1946

History of the Northwest Junior Livestock Show:

Seventy nine years ago, a group of businessmen, farmers and the agricultural community put together a little money and a lot of effort to found the Northwest Junior Livestock Show.

The Northwest Junior Livestock show was established in 1946 at Eby's Auburn Livestock Yard and Sales Barn. It moved to the King County Fairgrounds in Enumclaw in 1974, then to Puyallup in 1990.

The goal of the NWJLS is to invest in the future of agriculture through youth; offering an educational experience in selecting, feeding and marketing the finished product of a hog, steer, or lamb. Thus this show is an investment in the future and contribution to that future. With this goal reaffirmed by all who support the show, now and for the past 79 years, we grow and mature with new enthusiasm to continue what a group of farsighted and dedicated men started.

What our youth say:

"One of my favorite aspects of the Northwest Junior Livestock Show is the friendly, supportive community; everyone is incredibly welcoming."

"My showing experience with the NWJLS has been amazing! I love the community and competition it builds. Through the NWJLS I have been able to gain knowledge on how to raise my livestock to be some of the best both personality and temperament wise while all placing well in market. Overall the NWJLS has allowed me to gain a high drive for success and fun times / memories as well as a opportunity to do what I love most !"

"Showing animals has taught me how to be responsible with things I have invested in. This is a life long skill to have and I am grateful to have had the opportunity to show pigs the last 2 years."
