I have the privilege to meet Mark in the spring of 2023. My first impression of Mark was that he was genuine. He cares for others including strangers and is personable.

Mark always had a smile on his face. I am grateful to be able to cross paths with Mark because it was a reminder of how important to treat others with kindness and respect. In my short time interacting with Mark, I was able to learn more about his upbringing and his background. It is incredible to hear that he has not let his past prevent him from pursuing his dreams and tackling challenges with boldness. Without doubt, I know he is a walking ray of sunshine. I just hope Mark knows that he should also spend time taking care of himself when it is needed. I don't think I will have to worry about that. I wish you all the best in the future, remember to continue begin kind.
