WHAT IS AN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STEM FAIR?

“Science Fairs Develop STEM Capable Learners Who Are Invested in Their Own Education”

STEM Fairs (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) are programs where students select and develop an idea, plan and conduct an experiment, meet deadlines, manage a full-scale science project, and analyze data. STEM Programs and Fairs provide a structured platform that encourages innovation and creativity. Students learn that STEM is everywhere as they investigate their science questions and solve real-life problems. Students present their project with posters, photos, and demonstrations in a School-Wide STEM Showcase and get recognition and awards for their hard work and dedication!
