

Prevention Training for Parents & Educators

Written by Anna Sonoda, LCSW

Prevention training helps communities protect children before abuse happens. This guide explains what's covered, who benefits, and how to bring it to your school or organization.

Workshop Topics

- Grooming 101: Understanding early signs
- Building prevention habits at home and school
- Clear adult-child interaction boundaries
- How to talk to kids about safety without fear

Who Benefits

- Parents and caregivers
- Teachers, coaches, and youth leaders
- Faith communities and after-school programs

What You'll Take Away

- Ready-to-use conversation guides
- Prevention checklists for staff and volunteers
- Policy templates for safer environments
