I was born and raised in Richland, Washington, and returned to my home town two years after graduating from college. I was a business education teacher at Richland High School until 1992 when I began teaching at Columbia Basin College as an adjunct instructor. Today, I continue to teach online classes for CBC.

I have been an active member of the community, especially in the schools through PTA and other school organizations. I have also served on other HOA boards in Richland. My volunteer activities include helping dog rescue organizations, volunteering at my grandchildren's elementary schools, and participating in mock interviews for high school students.

My husband, Ron, was born and raised in Kennewick, Washington, and we have been married for 35 years. We have three grown daughters and four grandchildren. We are all avid Gonzaga basketball fans as all three daughters attended Gonzaga. Go Zags!

I enjoy walking, traveling, and playing with my yorkie, Macee.

I look forward to serving as Secretary for the HOA Board for the Heights at Meadow Springs.
