

Trains on the Track – Hop on a subway car and take a bumpy ride with a conductor who flows through the tracks to the beat of the city. This catchy picture or board book has young readers identifying numbers, colors and prepositions that are the foundations for graphemes and number sense.

Trains on the Track

We see the trains on the track.

We see the trains on the track.

From uptown to downtown
the wheels go clickety, clickety, clack.

1 uptown. Uptown 1. Come on let's run to the uptown 1.

Having some fun by the 2 train track.

We're at the 2 train track and we're never looking back.

We see the trains on the track.

We see the trains on the track.

From uptown to downtown
the wheels go clickety, clickety, clack.

Ride the A and B red. What the announcer said.

Get it in your head, next up is the A and B red.

We see the trains on the track.

We see the trains on the track.

From uptown to downtown
the wheels go clickety, clickety, clack.

3 crosstown. The crosstown 3. Queens to Brooklyn bound on the crosstown 3.

Green line 4. Green line 4. All aboard to the Bronx on the green line 4.

Downtown 5. Are you feeling alive? Zooming through the city on the downtown 5.

The Brown express. Take the 6. Got my ticket for the Brown train 6.

Northbound 7. Local train. Stop every stop. Say every station name.

Blue line 8. I swipe the card and push the gate.

Southbound 9. Yellow train. It runs on time. The yellow 9.

We see the trains on the track.

We see the trains on the track.

From uptown to downtown

Through all the neighborhoods.

10 cars on the track. "Watch the closing doors." Take a step back.

Taking a ride on the trains below the ground.

Some come up to cross the town.

Down the stairs. Pay the toll.

Rumble through the tunnel, steel wheels roll.

Find the map. Watch the sign.

Ride a train on a subway line.