

Count Down the Avenue

Bop-de bop, loop de loo. Let's count down the avenue!

One pup on a walk. We meet two frisky friends at the corner.

Three pups yip. They kiss and nuzzle too.

Bop-de bop, loop de loo. Let's count down the avenue.

Four acorns fall from branches. A clever squirrel scurries away.

Five ladders criss-cross up a wall. [fire escape]

Six cars halt on red. The officer waves me across.

Bop-de bop, loop de loo. Let's count down the avenue.

At the park

Seven people stretch and reach. [Tai Chi]

Eight players chase a ball. [soccer game]

Nine butterflies flit and land on flowers.

Listen. Do you hear that?

Ten chimes ring from the clocktower.

Bing bing ding bing bing bing ding ding bing bing

Walking home. [leaving the park]

Bop-de bop, loop de loo. I count back down the avenue.

Nine gulls in the clouds.

Eight tots climbing up, sliding down.

Seven lamp posts leading out.

Bop-de bop, loop de loo. Count back down the avenue.

Six steps to cross the walk.

Five buildings to my door.

Four envelopes in the mail.

Three flights to my floor.

Two walkers thirsty and hot. [the main character and her dog]

One sister welcomes us home.

Bop-de bop, loop de loo. We counted down the avenue.

Can you?
