

Count Down at the Seashore

Hop-de hop, boop de boo. Let's count at the seashore!

One pail holds a shovel.

Two kites soar above.

Three umbrellas.

Red, blue. Yellow and green.

They bend in the wind.

Hop-de hop, boop de boo. Let's count at the seashore!

Four paw prints in the sand. A pup snatches a toy.

Five shells in pieces.

I make this one complete.

Hop-de hop, boop de boo. Let's count at the seashore!

Six bathers dive into waves.

Two surf toward the shore.

Seven sandwiches with lots of jam.

Eight chips in my bag.

Nine birds flock overhead.

Ten players rally a ball. [volleyball]

Hop-de hop, boop de boo. Let's count at the seashore! [with siblings on the boardwalk]

Listen. Do you hear the waves?

People are talking. Radios play music.

Nine clouds overhead.

“I see a rabbit.” “I see a tiger”

They stretch and break apart.

A racecar becomes a rocket ship and blasts away.

Hop-de hop, boop de boo.

Eight bikes speed past.

Watch out! Scooters and skaters share the path.

Seven signs lead out.

Stop. Beware.

Watch Out! Speed Limit 15.

Slow down. Caution. No Parking.

“Come back!” [parent yells from beach] “Over here.”

We run back to our site.

It’s time to go.

Hop-de hop, boop de boo. Time to leave the seashore.

Six bags to carry home.

Five icees from a cart. [Icee cart]

Four seats to buckle up.

Three hours to my door.

Two sisters tired and hot.

One mom says “we’re here.”

Hop-de hop, boop de boo. We counted at the seashore!

Can you?

By Jane Lake

117-12 Ocean Promenade, #6K

Rockaway Park, NY 11694

917-588-1022

cjlakecontact@gmail.com

dabadelic.com