

Clay Serby

(1950-)

- Social worker, Prince Albert and Yorkton
- Executive director of SIGN, 1980-1991
- Alderman, City of Yorkton council, 1986-1991

- Trustee on the Yorkton Regional Hospital Board
- President of the United Way
- Founding member of Yorkton Big Brothers and Sisters
- Founding member of the Seniors' Transportation program.
- Served on several provincial advisory committees and boards in the development of standards and policies for health and social service programs in Saskatchewan

- MLA Yorkton October 1991, part of NDP landslide victory, won 55 of 66 seats
- Re-elected in 1995, 1999, 2003
- Resigned as MLA in November 2007 due to health reasons, had previously undergone treatment for cancer starting in 2004

As of 2023, the Yorkton constituency has been represented by members of the CCF/NDP for 11 terms; the Liberal party 10 terms; Progressive Conservative /SaskParty 5 terms; independent and Unity Party 1 term each.

Serby served in the Roy Romanow cabinet in the following portfolios:

- Minister Responsible for Saskatchewan Property Management Corporation (1995-1997);
- Minister Responsible for Liquor and Gaming Authority (1995-1997);
- Minister Responsible for Saskatchewan Government Insurance (1995-1997);
- Minister of Highways and Transportation (1997);
- Minister of Health (1997-1998);
- Minister of Education (1998-1999);
- Minister of Municipal Affairs, Culture and Housing (1999-2000);
- Minister of Agriculture and Food (2000-2001).

Serby served in the Lorne Calvert cabinet in the following portfolios:

- Deputy Premier (2001-2007)
- Minister of Agriculture and Food (2001-2002);
- Minister Responsible for Rural Revitalization (2001-2002);
- Minister of Agriculture, Food and Rural Revitalization (2002-2004);
- Minister of Rural Revitalization (2004);
- Minister of Rural Development (2005-2006);
- Minister of Regional Economic and Co-operative Development (2006-2007);
- Minister of Property Management (2007).