CONFERENCE HELD IN WINNIPEG Between Farmers and Bankers and Loan Companies.

[From Special Correspondent] At a meeting in Winnipeg last week of the Canadian Council of Agriculture, Frederick McKenzie, former secretary of Manitoba G.O.A. was made permanent secretary-treasurer with headquarters in Winnipeg. The constitution was amended and provision made to admit all the organized farmers institutions commercial as well as educational. The following companies were admitted to membership: Saskatchewan Cooperative Elevator Co., Alberta Cooperative Elevator Co., Grain Growers' Grain Co. and Grain Growers' Guide. Their addition will materially strengthen the Council.

DIED DOING HIS DUTY

Particulars of death of Mr. C. W. R. Pearson's nephew Angus.

Mr. C. W. R. Pearson's eldest brother has forwarded to Mr. Pearson the following letter from the Officer Commanding the Royal Dublin Fusiliers regarding the death of Angus Pearson on first July as previously reported in the Press:—

Dear Mr. Pearson, I am writing to offer my sympathy to you and your family so the loss of your son. He was hit by shrapnel in the lungs, and died almost immediately. The loss to the Regiment is a very great one, as apart from being so universally popular, he was a first rate officer. I have never met a boy so full of pluck and daring, and his work as my Intelligence Officer has been of the best. Always when we were in the trenches he used to crawl about at night with a few men, to pick up information; and it was because of the risks he had run, particularly on June 28th during a raid we made on the German trenches, that I put him in charge of the carriers for the assault on July 1st, hoping that he would be safe. It was his duty to bring up ammunition, grenades, water, etc. after we had captured our objective.

The attack unfortunately was held up; but evidently your son thought it was progressing alright so went over the parapet. I unfortunately did not see him, or would have stopped him, supplies being at that time of no use. But he was ever indifferent to danger, and did what he thought to be his duty. He had been on the Regimental Staff for the last few months so I had the opportunity of knowing him well. We all feel his loss very much indeed, and I know that all ranks of the Dublin Fusiliers join with me in offering you our most sincere sympathy.

Yours sincerely (Signed) H. NELSON (Lt. Col. Commanding 1st Royal Dublin Fusiliers) N. B. He was buried in the Military Cemetery at Auchonvillers beside several of his comrades who fell on the same day.

PRIVATE JOHN HARPER IS KAMSACK HERO

Letter from Liet. C. D. Livingston clears up Mystery.

[Reprinted from Kamsack Times] At last we have found out who the "Kamsack Hero" was that stayed with his chum when he had an opportunity of escaping from the enemy. There has been so much comment on this act of heroism that we are publishing the press despatch as it appeared in the "Glasgow Herald," on Monday, June 12th. "There were many acts of self-sacrifice done by Canadian lads. Only a few of these stories will ever be known, but I heard one of them about a young private soldier from Kamsack, Saskatchewan, which has come out of all the tumult of shells. He had been crouching behind the shelter of some sandbags with one of his officers and an N.G.O. and a man who was his best friend. All three men were wounded and this young soldier from Kamsack had bandaged them. But his comrade was most badly wounded, and, when the shell fire lifted and there was just a chance of escape, it was utterly impossible to move him. The young soldier said "You go," to the other wounded men, who were just able to walk, and then sat down again by his comrade's side and said "I'm staying." So he stayed with his friend.

This left us with a longing to find out the name of the man, and a letter from Lieut. C. D. Livingston, of Yorkton, to Mrs. Duncan, shows that it was Pvt. John Harper, Mrs. Duncan's brother, and a well-known Kamsack boy. Following is an extract from the letter:—

June 11, 1916. Dear Mrs. Duncan: Before receiving this you will have heard that your brother Jack is among the missing of this battalion in the recent heavy fighting. I am still in hopes he may be a prisoner. The ones that came back are so very few—only 13 out of a company—that it is impossible to get very accurate information. The last information—and this is quite accurate—that I can get of your brother, gives you at least the assurance that, if he is dead, he died the noblest death that can come to any man.

Boy Scouts

The Yorkton Scout Troop left today on the G. T. P. for the District Scout Camp which will be being held at Devil's Lake from 1st to 10th Aug. The Rev. G. B. McLennan is the local Scout Master and with friends in town he has been very busy in preparing the lads for the camp.

The Canora men have shown a good deal which will be worth while studying and copying. Some thirty of the townspeople there have joined the Boy Scouts paying an annual fee of $2 each and thus by acting the "elder brother" to the younger lads they have assured the good work during the winter as well as the summer camp effect. Be ready to "go and do likewise". You will be called on.

OFFICERS OF YORKTON LODGE NO. 9 I.O.O.F. INSTALLED

At a recent meeting the following officers were installed by the installing officer P. B. Mills, P.G. for the ensuing term: N.G.—Bro. A. W. Smith. V.G.—Bro. T. E. Vanstone. Secretary—Bro. W. A. Jones, P.G. Warden—Bro. N. Bann. Conductor—Bro. H. Barbour. Chaplain—Bro. H. E. Plesance. R.S.N.G.—Bro. D. McLeay, P.G. L.S.N.G.—Bro. G. E. Ribblesdale. Ins. G.—Bro. J. H. McNeil. O.S.G.—Bro. D. Young, P.G. R.S.V.G.—Bro. J. M. Clark, P.G. L.S.V.G.—Bro. J. P. Ribblesdale, P.G.

COURT OF REVISION

The annual Court of Revision for the town was held on Friday. There were 33 appeals and 12 of the appellants were represented at the court.

No alteration was made on the Assessment Roll except in the case of the Royal Hotel where the building assessment was reduced from $350.00 to $224.00.

Your brother, his chum Corporal Toughland another man were in a corner of the trench that had not been completely destroyed. A wounded officer came along where they were and stayed for a while (Corp. Toughland had been buried under a parapet which had been blown in, and was badly hurt). After a while the shelling increased at this point and the officer told them they had better move on and try to get better shelter. The man who told me was the only one who came back from that part of the trench, and he said, "We tried to get Tough out but he could not walk. I went out and Harper stayed with him." Nothing more has been heard of either.

It has previously been reported officially that Pte. John Harper is a prisoner in Germany, so that this brave boy is at least, still alive. The "Canadian Threderman" gave a full page to this article about the Kamsack boy, and in conclusion published this editorial:—

"Thank God our men are all at the front or straining the leash to get there. Not necessarily 'bankers,' because some of the bluest blood of Britain has mingled again and again in the same trench with the common red blood of the ancestral serving man. Thank God that our grafters are slated in the penitentiary, or are safely headed for some under satisfactory escort. Thank God that our white livered 'jinks' are safe at home, tied up in the maternal apron or permitted to wander no further afield than the golf links, the pool room or the tennis courts! All our men who would be of any use now have put their names down as useless and worse than a menace at this stage of the job and recruiting rallies for such bad better be abandoned. The man of the hour is the man who forgets himself at any crisis of his country's life and the man of all men we honor is the Private from Kamsack."

ANNIVERSARY OF DECLARATION OF WAR

"20 Minutes of Prayer" each Hour of the Day, from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Friday, August 4th is the anniversary day of our Empire's declaration of war.

All the churches of the Anglican Communion will observe the day as a Day of Prayer. At Holy Trinity Church here each hour of the day will mark the beginning of a new "Twenty minutes of Prayer" and it is hoped that this arrangement will enable even the busiest among us to join at some one of the hours in the prayers our hearts all feel attuned to.

7 a.m. and 10 a.m. are the hours of the Holy Communion and 2 p.m. is the hour at which the children will gather. All townspeople are invited to take their share in this Day of Prayer and as so many of our Yorkton men are away in the danger zone the Church should find a good attendance at most of the hours.

"A TWENTY MINUTES OF PRAYER" COMMENCING AT EACH HOUR OF THE DAY

YORKTON FAIR AS OTHERS SEE IT.

Citizens of Canora (and there were a big crowd of them) who attended Yorkton's "big" 3-days fair report it as being the poorest they have ever seen. The crowds were great—the gate receipts ditto—but visitors got comparatively nothing for the money spent. Simply a case of history repeating itself, so far as Yorkton is concerned [CANORA ADVERTISER]

The Yorkton fair and exhibition attracted a large number of Saltcoats and district citizens last week. The attractions were not up to the usual standard, owing no doubt to the Brandon fare date clash. Next year Yorkton hopes to be on the circuit, and receive the benefits derived from same. From an agricultural stand point, the Yorkton fair is a long, long way behind Saltcoats. [SALTCOATS HERALD]

Churchbridgevisitors to Yorkton Fair have very decided opinions about it and the four Yorkton commercials who visited that point last Friday will be glad to pass along the good news to the management.

REGINA FAIR

Over 150 from Yorkton took in the Provincial Exhibition at Regina last week and all were delighted with the outing. Special trains were run on Wednesday and Thursday and the Yorkton Band under Will T. Moore was in attendance on Wednesday. Outstanding in point of interest may be mentioned the Grain Growers' local exhibit, the Better Babies contest, the Farm Boys' camp and the Perfection Type of Livestock. The aviation performances and other attractions were high-class and pleasing. Motorists found all arrangements for their convenience right up to date and the gathering deserved the record attendance it received.

Our English Letter

From Special Correspondent

July 12th. Oh! what weather! We hear it on all hands. The folk who managed to go south-east from London last week-end really enjoyed some hours of sunshine. The Kentish coast was especially favoured. We who were doomed to remain at home just saw the sun in the morning and then there followed the dull overcast and rainy time to which we are almost inured. The war is no doubt responsible for the heavy downpours which we have been experiencing and we will willingly wait patiently for the better weather if the end of this terribly devastating war can be hastened.

The hay crops which promised to yield at least ten per cent. above the average, now threaten to drop below the average. The heavy rains have done much damage in many parts of the country. Last Saturday the rainfall in Edinburgh reached 3.17 inches.

The Sales are in full swing at all the City stores and shops. Goods offered are much about the same standard as usual but what a difference in the women buyers. The usual rush to be first has gone. There is more money in many of the purses than usual to be spent but a rare discrimination is being shown in the purchases. The remark "I don't really want it but it is such a bargain" is seldom heard this season. Dainty, flimsy, useless articles are receiving scant attention.

A lace merchant has had his call postponed for two months so that he may train his father (aged 65) in the business. Princess Louise, at Kensington Palace on Saturday last, presented the Canadian forces with a silk Union Jack and a silver shield inscribed "Ypres" as a gift from the women and children of the British Isles. SIR SAM HUGHES "WAS BOUED" BY ANGRY SOLDIERS

[From the Toronto Telegram (Conservative)] Yesterday's humorous movement of troops at Camp Gordon did not end in cheers for Sir Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, as Ottawa militia heads, depicting similar performances in the past as a president, had anticipated. Instead of being the recipient of showers of applause the head of Canada's militia affairs was loudly "bowed" on the final march past and later on, while standing at the railroad station he was jeered by a large section of troops.

Even the chief officers of the Dominion Militia Staff could not refrain from expressing their disappointment at the way the troops acted. They all prophesied that Camp Gordon had not seen the last of the trouble. As for General Hughes, he retired to his private quarters.

WARNING ISSUED TO MOTORISTS

There should be no option of a fine for the driver of a motor car who, while intoxicated, injures a pedestrian. Stiff jail sentences constitute the only effective cure for that sort of crime.
[Toronto Globe]

Hints are being thrown out in eastern papers as to raising the tariff to meet war expenditures and westerners can prepare themselves accordingly. The willing horse always gets the burden and unless the people of the west get busy and assert themselves tariff changes will be made increasing the hardships on western farmers.

Sir Sam Hughes

vate car and spent the trip back to Toronto in telling stories. He blamed whiskey for the outbreak, although those competent to judge insist no person in the parade and none of the men at the station had been drinking anything stronger than pop.

Sir Sam Hughes entered Borden Camp at a very unfavorable time. In the past General Logie has always staged grand parades for the benefit of the Minister of Militia and the latter has always been the central figure at the reviewing base when any large number of troops were being inspected. On Monday General Logie thought he would have a rehearsal so that everything would go off without a hitch when Sir Sam arrived.

The troops fell in Monday morning at 7.45 and marched to the parade ground. The ground at Camp Borden is a very light sandy nature, almost dust. A light wind serves to kick up enough dust to choke a man in a few moments. A scorching sun soon made itself felt, and the men became thirsty. Some battalions have to march two or three miles to reach the parade ground, and when 32,000 troops are being reviewed it is necessary that the first battalion march a long distance past the saluting base in order to allow the last battalion to be seen. The soldiers wore fatigue dress consisting of hat, shirt, trousers, puttees, socks and boots, but they wanted water. They had been forbidden to carry their water bottles on the ground that it is bad to drink water when over-heated.

When the battalions had been allowed to stand at ease there were cries of "Water, water." The officers stopped this by orders of "Shun!" From 8 o'clock in the morning until 12.30 at noon these 32,000 soldiers were tramped through that sand and dust or else standing in it while the sun blazed down and Gen. Logie went on with his inspection. Their lips were coated with dust. On the way back to camp there was ominous mutter all along the line. Monday afternoon was as warm as the morning. The Telegram man found it 91 in the shade of Col. Lowe's canvas verandah. As the battalions washed talk of trouble went on. Towards the cool of the evening a very large number of the troops rushed for the headquarters building. They intended to break in the doors. Col. Harry Osborne, Assistant Deputy Quartermaster.

Address The Use Of "FRUIT-A-LIVES", The Famous Fruit Medicines.

MR. ROSENBERG
589 Casgrain St., Montreal.
April 20th, 1915.

"In my opinion, no other medicine in the world is so curative for Constipation and Indigestion as 'Fruit-a-lives'. I was suffering from these complaints for five years, and my sedentary occupation, music, brought about a kind of Intestinal Paralysis—with nasty Head-aches, belching gas, drowsiness after eating, and Pain in the Back. I tried pills and medicines of physicians, but nothing helped me. Then I was induced to try 'Fruit-a-lives', and now for six months I have been entirely well. I advise any one who suffers from that horrible trouble—Chronic Constipation with the resultant indigestion, to try 'Fruit-a-lives', and you will be agreeably surprised at the great benefit you will receive". A. ROSENBERG.

Reinforced Concrete Bridge Abutments

General, rode down to the men and attempted to reason with them. He is the officer who picks out camp sites and makes necessary arrangements on behalf of Ottawa. It is said he has worked very hard. But instead of listening to Osborne a number of soldiers attempted to pull him from his horse, but he succeeded in getting away. "You're the man who picked this camp," was shouted at Col. Osborne. . . . The London Battalion has been cited by newspapers and officers as the one responsible for the trouble. The Telegram representative sounded the feeling, in several battalions and there seems to be a general discontent among the men. The London battalion came to camp late at night, turned in and pitched tents, had a very poor meal and were ordered out with the 32,000 on Monday morning to be viewed by Gen. Logie. They possibly caused a storm to break which had been brewing for several days. . . . The review in general was a fizzle. Sir Sam Hughes felt it and every body else on Sir Sam's private train felt it. The party moved out of the camp feeling that the troops did not regret their going. Sir Sam was not as jubilant or talkative as usual, despite the fact that among the beribboned honorary colonels who made up the only admiring throng which he had seen that day were W. K. McNaught, Joseph Oliver, James L. Hughes and Walter Maughan.

ENGLISH LETTER

Englishmen the world over are proud of their public schools. What a fine record Eton boasts. 5028 are on active service but of these 404 have been killed, 152 died, 748 wounded, 30 missing and 65 prisoners. Such a casualty list proves that the Etonians are not amongst the shy. Then three have been awarded the V.C. and 146 the D.S.O.

Another war change! All efforts in pre-war times to introduce baseball into England met very little encouragement certainly not with success. Now matches are being played regularly each week. Last week-end the Canadian Contingent beat London Americans in a match at Westcliff by 24 runs to 21.

The Glagow Corporation applied to the Liquor Control Board for total prohibition during the war. The board have, however, refused the request.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Skerman of Ashwell, Herts, have twelve sons, all of whom are on active service. Eleven are in the army and one in the Marines. The father, although 70 years of age is now helping in the hay harvest.

TENDERS
Reinforced Concrete Bridge Abutments

Sealed tenders will be received up to 12.30 o'clock on Monday, August 7th, 1916, for the undermentioned works—

 Mr. Chas. Woodhead was at Foam Lake Fair with a 1916 Maxwell. He found the halitone too much for the little Ford and pins his faith to the Maxwell. As agent he says he can fully recommend them and guarantee they will stand against halitones, etc. In his characteristic way he sums up the whole matter with "The Maxwell Well, she's a peach."

Mr. R. G. Dryden narrowly escaped serious injury on Tuesday. In conveying a derrick to Foam Lake he came in contact with a sagging telephone wire. The wire had tightened before he noticed what was wrong and when he went to lift the derrick the wire rebounded and knocked him down giving him so severe a shock as to cause him to faint. Fortunately his team stood quiet until help came.

Mrs. S. Jackson Saskatoon, is visiting her aunt Mrs. R. G. Dryden.

Mr. H. Howse has volunteered for active service and is now in the ranks with those who have answered the call. Good luck to them all.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. J. Reynolds of Leslie visited here on their way to Manitoba for a motor tour.

This burg was well represented at Foam Lake Fair and all report an excellent time in spite of threatening clouds and slight rainfall.

Co-operation Between the Farmer and Merchant is Necessary for the Success of the Community

Why not be contented? This is the question that is being asked by the people of this country. They are merchants and business men of this town who do not do this. To advocate the idea of trading at home is pleasing to a number of our people as long as it means to buy from them, but frequently when they need what may be bought here, they go elsewhere, or send orders to mail order houses. This is not fair, and it is inhuman. The farmer who buys his clothing, dry goods, shoes, etc., from mail order houses, is not getting the best value for his money. He is not getting the best value for his money. He is not getting the best value for his money.

Germany Will Have to Learn Through Bitter Experience That Between Nations, as Well as Individuals, Trade is Destroyed by Inhuman Motives and Lawlessness

Germany is now finding out that its strength is not in the length of its ironed sword, but in the length and stability of its people's faith. And even before the first fruits of its harvest of war-hate are gathered, the German people, to their regret and irreparable loss, are being plainly taught that the basis of trade with the people of other countries is not arrogant and insolent willfulness, but the honest and moderate spirit of the merchant.

Even Balaklava Charge Was Out-classed at Loos

Mr. Winston Churchill, in his speech in the House of Commons upon the heroism of men being placed along the British front in France and Flanders, gave a vivid description of the fate of "the promotion" in the battle of Loos. With other divisions, it played a very important part, he said, in that engagement 6,000 were killed or wounded. Some battalions lost three-quarters of their strength, and nearly all succeeded in achieving the task which was set them. They gained some of the most important positions, and these were only lost at the end of the day.

Meeting of Ratepayers' Association

Interesting Questions Discussed.

Meetings Will Be Held Fortnightly.

The meeting of the Ratepayers' Association was held last Friday evening, Mr. R. Parsons presiding. The attendance was small but the matters of importance were brought up for consideration and discussed.

The first question dealt with was the revision of sub-division property assessment, the opinion being that a revision should be prepared and a public meeting had to be held to look into the legal question.

Another point raised was in connection with a recent amendment to the Town Act whereby no revision of an appeal can be made in the work of the Association.

It was resolved to call the attention of the Town Council to the noxious weeds on the vacant lots and alleys.

Some discussion also took place on the question of Tax Enforcement and consideration was deferred till next meeting.

Meetings will be held in the Town Hall on the 2nd and 16th Friday in each month and it is hoped public interest will be taken in the work of the Association.

SCARCITY OF TEACHERS

By reason of the great scarcity of teachers existing in school districts in rural communities in the Province, and of the necessity of providing as many teachers as possible to take training, the Department of Education has decided to temporarily relax the regulations governing Second Class Certificates and to admit directly to the Second Class sessions of the Normal School all persons who hold Second Class Diplomas and who are otherwise qualified. Persons who have taken Third Class training and who hold in addition Second Class Diplomas will be granted the same privilege and may enter the Second Class session without their having completed the year's experience in teaching required by existing regulations.

The Normal School sessions will open at Regina and Saskatoon on August 21 and applications for admission will be dealt with in the order in which they are received at the Department.

Deputation from Yorkton Urging Completion of Hudson's Bay Railway

At a meeting of the Yorkton and District Board of Trade held on July 14, J. H. Barkham and Mr. A. J. Logan were appointed to represent the committee of the Hudson's Bay Railway from Yorkton at the interview with the Hon. Mr. J. F. Roche, Minister of the Interior, which took place in Ottawa on July 15.

Dr. Roche, Minister of the Interior, went out in his private car last night on the Great West Express.

His visit to Yorkton was apparently unheralded for some of his friends met him at the depot and recognizing his loudly plight Mr. J. E. Penker engaged him in conversation during the stay-over.

Dr. Roche has been making an extended trip of inspection through Western Canada and the Yukon and is on his way back to Ottawa.
