

Dr. Antony Dockery BIO

“To give you a little history about my story, I was born in Orlando, Florida, and raised in Detroit, Michigan. I met my beautiful wife Yvonne in a skating rink in 1987 and married her in 1990. I attended the University of Laverne and received a Bachelor of Arts in Religion. I also attended Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary and received a Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degree. I enjoyed a 21 year military career in the United States Air Force and California Air National Guard as a Pilot. I have been blessed to be a member of St. Stephen since January 1990, when I started as the Youth Minister. In 1999, I came on fulltime as Minister of Education and Youth. In 2007, I was elected Executive Pastor, and then elected as Senior Pastor in January 2008. We serve an AWESOME God!”
