"Saints and Villains"

by Denise Giardina

Tuesday, November 26 | 7:30pm In Person and Online via Zoom

In the charnel house that was Europe in the Second World War, there were few instances of shining moral courage, let alone secular sainthood. Dietrich Bonhoeffer, the German theologian and Nazi resister was the exception. This emblematic figure risked his life--and finally lost it--through his participation in a failed plot to assassinate Adolf Hitler and topple his regime. Saints and Villains gives us this exemplary life in a sweeping narrative that is bold in conception and utterly convincing in its power of imaginative reconstruction.

Whether you will have read the book or not, join us for the discussion Tuesday, November 26 at 7:30pm in person or online. If you need assistance getting a copy of the book, speak to Erin Stone.
