Have you ever felt deeply connected to God through your praying?

Have you ever felt heard in your praying?

Or have you ever felt disappointed in your praying, and that maybe your praying was just empty words in the air and feelings expressed going nowhere?

How is it possible for praying to actually change your life, not just someone else's?

Are you missing something vital you may possibly discover or re-discover in a new way?

Join us for a session of conversation, sharing and exploration as we uncover some key insights and guidelines on prayer gleaned from scripture.
