

Guy Smagghe serves as the Director of Presbyterian World Service and Development. He has been with the agency since 1997. Guy has a Masters in Political Economy of Development from the University of Toronto. He has travelled extensively to partner project locations in Afghanistan, Pakistan, India, Malawi, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Haiti, and recently in Nepal and Jordan, working with partners to make a sustainable difference in the lives of populations affected by poverty and disasters. Guy strongly believes in the power of partnership and in ecumenical collaborations through Canadian Foodgrains Bank and at the ACT Alliance - where he also serves on their governing structures."
