THE PCC, COLONIZATION & RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS

Listening, learning and working for reconciliation

In marking the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, it is important to understand the church's role in the harms of colonization and residential school. Why was it important for the church to apologize? What is reconciliation? What is our role?

Sunday, September 27 is Orange Shirt Day/Truth and Reconciliation Sunday. Following worship (12 noon), we will share lunch as we take in a presentation with conversation led by our own Katharine Sisk, who is Senior Program Coordinator of the Justice Ministries of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Plan to join us, online and in person.
