A Season of Thanksgiving

“1 Thessalonians 5:18: "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

November invites us to pause. To breathe in the crisp air, notice the golden leaves, and reflect on the goodness of God—not just in the obvious blessings, but in the quiet, hidden places too.

Gratitude is not reserved for moments when everything feels right. Scripture calls us to give thanks in everything—in joy and in sorrow, in clarity and in confusion, in abundance and in need. This kind of thanksgiving is not circumstantial; it's spiritual. It's a posture of trust.

Gratitude as Worship

When we choose gratitude, we declare that God is faithful—even when we don't understand the season we're in. Thanksgiving becomes worship. It shifts our focus from what's missing to what's present. From what's painful to what's purposeful.

Prayer Corner 🙏

Lord, thank You for Your presence in every season. Teach me to give thanks not just when life feels full, but when it feels uncertain. Help me see Your hand in the ordinary and Your heart in the hard. May my gratitude be a daily offering, a reflection of trust, and a testimony of Your goodness. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Encounter a Deeper Experience of God's Goodness and Love

We praise God for a wonderful time of rest and rejuvenation during our summer break. We are coming back to finish out the last 26 weeks of our study as we learn the names of Jesus in the New Testament. Join us on-line via Zoom for an hour of power, each Tuesday at 7:30 pm EST. This 52- week study on the names and titles of God will help you experience Him in fresh and deeper ways, revealing many surprising connections between the Old and New Testaments. As we explore His names, we will come face- to- face with the God of Scripture- a God who is both the greatest of all Kings and the most loving of all Fathers. A God enthroned on high who bends low so that we can come to know Him.
