California Community Services Center, Inc. (CCSC):

CCSC contracted to provide services for Los Angeles City College (LACC), Elisabeth Fry Center, Inc. (EFC), Project Heavy West and had it's own out-patient clinic. In each of these settings I provided direct services, had administrative responsibilities, and provided supervision to interns and staff. At EFC I conducted in-service training to staff and consultation to the administration. With Project Heavy West I administrated a grant to provide services to an elementary school. I supervised interns providing direct services for primary grade students identified by the school's resource specialist as in need of counseling services. I provided consultation services for the school's resource specialist, teachers and principal.

Dates and experiences of earlier internships at The Children's Baptist Home of Southern California and at Camarillo State Hospital are available upon request.
