Upload Your Own Photos

Modified on: Sat, 17 Apr, 2021 at 8:14 AM

RunSignup offers a multitude of options for you to submit your own photos. Below are the three options available

1. Upload photos following the submission of your results or activities.
2. Upload photos from the Photos tab on RunSignup race page.
3. Upload photos from your own individual result.

Uploading After Submitting Results/Activity

You can upload your own photos after you submit your results or log your activities. You can learn how to submit your results here (https://help.runsignup.com/support/solutions/articles/17000087349-submit-and-manage-virtual-results).

Once you successfully submit your results, you will be taken to a confirmation page. You can then select Submit Your Photos

Then select Start Uploading Photos > then drag and drop or browse for the image files.

Uploading From Result Page

Additionally, you can upload your own photos from your individual result. To find your individual result page, head to the RunSignup race page and select the Result tab > be sure you are on the correct result set your result falls into and search for your name or bib number > click into your own result > then select Photos

Be sure you are on the correct result set your result falls into, then you can search for your result by entering in your bib number or name.

Once you find your own result, click into the result and then select Photos
