

A stack of old, rolled-up newspapers, likely from the early 20th century, showing various headlines in Italian. The paper is aged and yellowed, with some text visible on the outer edges of the rolls. The text includes phrases like "dente, era nell'ordine (...)", "mento non sono il gesto di Bara-", "Ma ci sarà quello che trascinerà", "precisamente i", "zione di coraggio e civiltà", "Raffa e Fontana", and "alle pagine 7 e 8".

They begin to fight, and of course ev-whom the wild men cannot kill, and these inspire fear until the man is

Not long ago a man who had smoked a marhuana cigarette attacked and killed a policeman and badly wounded three other officers. Six policemen were needed to disarm him and march him to the police station, where he had to be put into a straitjacket.

There is in the state of Michoacan another plant the effects of which upon the human organism are very curious. The plant grows wildly in some parts of Michoacan, and natives have observed that whenever they traversed a field where there were many such plants they lost all notion of places. It takes from three to four hours for a person affected by the smell of the plant to recover the full control of his mental faculties.

Another very curious plant is the one called "de las Carreras" in some places where it grows. When a person drinks a brew of the leaves or seeds of the plant he feels an impulse to run and will run until he drops dead or exhausted.

A stack of rolled-up newspapers, likely from 1906, is shown in a sepia-toned, slightly blurred photograph. The newspapers are stacked horizontally, with their edges creating a rhythmic, wavy pattern. The text '1906 NEWSPAPERS' is overlaid in a large, white, serif font, centered horizontally and slightly lower in the frame. Some headlines are visible on the edges of the papers, including 'dente, era nell'ordine (...)', 'mento non sono il gesto di Bara-', 'Ma ci sarà quello che trascinerà', 'precisamente i', 'zione in variakshow televis-', 'zione di coraggio e civiltà', 'Raffa e Fontana', and 'alle pagine 7 e 8'.

Smoking is a universal habit among the poorer classes, even quite young children being addicted to cigarettes. One habit the government has been compelled to combat is the use of "marihuana," a weed which, when smoked with tobacco in the form of a cigarette, drives the user temporarily insane and often causes him to run amuck.
