Message From President of DAABA

Mr. Palash (Paul) Gupta

Dear Friends,

On behalf of Delaware Asian American Business Association (DAABA), it gives me great pleasure to welcome you to DAABA Diwali Party at NUR Shrine, on Sunday, October 7, 2012. We are pleased that you all are participating in this event year after year making it more stronger, larger and successful.

We at DAABA believe in success of small business owners and try to prevent Bills and Regulations that can hinder the success of small businesses. This year we successfully prevented passage of Senate Bill allowing early opening of liquor stores and House Bill for Direct Shipment of Wine in Delaware. (Details are on Pg. 3).

Thank You for your participation and support for DAABA. DAABA is for you and DAABA represents you. DAABA has completed its 12 yrs. and in all these years we have made many good friends in Dover and all across Delaware. I want to thank all the Retailers across three counties for their active participation and encouragement. I would personally like to thank all the Lawmakers who has and have been continuously supporting our organization and are helping us in achieving our goals.

As the President of DAABA my mission is "To unite the industry and provide benefits to the retailers to keep them updated in this fast paced and constantly changing Industry".

Thank you for participating and your continuous support to DAABA.

Palash (Paul) Gupta
 President, DAABA

2012 DAABA Achievements

Senate Bill # 224 - Early Opening of Liquor Stores

DAABA Successfully opposed and won the ruling against Early Opening of Liquor Stores on Weekdays, Weekends & Sundays.

House Bill # HB 78 - Direct Shipment of Wine Bill

DAABA Successfully Opposed and won by preventing this Bill to Pass the House as it would have substantially jeopardized the well being of liquor store owners. This bill if passed would have allowed the wineries and other online wholesalers of wine to directly ship to end consumers in the State of Delaware.
