RANCH VERSATILITY & COW HORSE SCHOOLING SHOW

The GCSP is excited to again offer a schooling show series at the beautiful Posse Arena in Orland as a relaxed and fun opportunity for both new and experienced riders to learn and improve the Ranch Horse discipline.

- Registration 8 AM. Show Starts 9 AM.
- NEW - No class Adds or changes will be accepted after 11 AM.
- ALL riders on grounds must sign a Liability Release Form.
- Series Champion Buckles and Reserve Awards for each division. Riders must ride in 2 of 3 shows to qualify for a buckle.
- Hi Point awards for the day in each division. Daily 1st place awards for each class.
- Series Buckle Champion and Daily Hi Point will be calculated using the sum of points from the Boxing class, Ranch Reining, Ranch Riding, Ranch Trail and Ranch Pleasure.
- Champion Buckle and Reserve Champion winners will be calculated using the average of the sum of points from all 3 shows.
- Ties will be broken by highest score in the cow class.
- NEVER WON A BUCKLE: Each show will have a different class designated for NWAB. Rider must never have won a buckle in that type of class. Winner will be determined by the highest score across all divisions.
- TRAIL: No Trail classes may be ridden before competing in designated division Trail class. Riders MUST complete the Trail course in their designated division FIRST.
- RANCH COW HORSE: Class will follow AQHA Working Cow Horse patterns. Rein work will be followed by cow work. After last fence turn, riders will have the option of circling OR break-away roping the cow.
- Judges and Show Management decisions are final.
- All classes, with the exception of cow classes, will be "OPEN DRAW" at will, in order. It is the rider's responsibility when entering each class to give the judge/scribe your name and number.
- AQHA rules where applicable.
- Novice Division: The Novice Division is reserved for individuals in their 1st or 2nd year of Ranch riding and showing. Rider must meet Amateur or Youth requirements and cannot have placed in the top 3 in any western performance discipline (Reining, Cutting, Cow Horse, Trail).
- Ranch Reining and Ranch Riding patterns will be selected from the AQHA Rule Book.
- All patterns, including Ranch Trail will be available the Wednesday before the show on Facebook and at the show.
- Lunch will be available on premises.
