

St. Ann's Serves Up Southern Fried Chicken

*Knights of Columbus and Women's Club
Team Up for a Summer Favorite*

Edenton residents know that when Ed Ross is in the kitchen, good things happen. After earning rave reviews as "Chef Supremo" during St. Ann's popular Italian Night, Ross is trading marinara for buttermilk and breading.

On Saturday, July 11, the St. Ann Knights of Columbus and the St. Ann Women's Club will join forces for a Southern Fried Chicken Dinner that promises to be the taste of summer.

The parish hall on Broad Street is already buzzing with excitement after the success of the Italian Night. Now, with golden fried chicken on the menu, the teams are ready to welcome the community for another hearty, homemade meal.

"Yes, but also the St Ann women's club; it's a joint effort. I was messing around a couple of weeks ago with a couple of copycat recipes of chic fila chicken and they came out amazing (brined them overnight) and then the breading, etc. So we talked about trying a fried chicken dinner and said why not? I think it will go over pretty well, everyone loves fried chicken."

Mark your calendar and bring your appetite. This is a take out only dinner, however, a few seats will be available to sit and enjoy your meal.

Proceeds from this dinner support local charities and the many works of St. Ann Church and the Knights of Columbus.
