Liability

The Chemehuevi Indian Tribe and its staff, representatives, and agents are not responsible for any loss, damages, theft, accidents, injuries, or liability issues that might arise by participating in this event. I/We shall indemnify and hold harmless the Chemehuevi Indian Tribe, its staff, representatives, and agents from any damages or injury to any person or to the property of any person, claims, demands, losses, liabilities, damages of any kind, and obligations pertaining to or arising out of or in connection with my/our activities and any agreements entered into by me/us in connection with this event under this agreement.

Vendor Booth Agreement

By submitting this application, I affirm that the facts set forth in it are true and complete. Additionally, I understand that under The Indian Arts and Crafts Act of 1990 (P.L. 101-644), it is a felony to knowingly misrepresent and sell goods as being Indian or Indian-made. I understand that if I am accepted as a booth vendor, any other misrepresentations made by me or staff during the event may result in exclusion from this event and any future events. I understand I must bring my own table(s) and/or any chairs. Any payment(s) due must be submitted at time of application. There are no refunds (exception: Event is full).

Our Policy

It is the policy of the Chemehuevi Indian Tribe to provide equal opportunities without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, gender, sexual preference, age, or disability.

I have read and understand the liability, policies, and vendor booth agreement for this event and agree to comply with the terms and conditions of which I have submitted this application.
