

CHAPTER 1Point of View

Based on what you've read so far, what point of view is this story told from? How do you know?

How do you think this point of view will impact the reader's understanding of the events of the story?

CHAPTER 2Sensory Language

Authors use sensory language to help the reader experience the story with all their senses. Look for examples of words or phrases that appeal to your senses. Record 3 examples & explain what each makes you think or feel.

CHAPTER 3Character Traits

After reading some chapters of this book, what are some traits you would use to describe the main character Billy? Support your decisions with evidence from the text.

CHAPTER 4Analyze

Do you think the price of the dogs changed? Explain your answer with text evidence for support.

CHAPTER 5Cause & Effect

As you read, look for examples of cause and effect relationships. Record them below.

CHAPTER 6

Summary

Generate a summary of the chapter you read today. It should focus on the big ideas and have a beginning, middle, and end.

--

CHAPTER 7

Analyze Setting

Based on your understanding of the story, does this take place in the past, present or future? Give reasons that support your answer

--

CHAPTER 8

Infer

What evidence does the author give in this chapter that proves Little Ann and Old Dan are great hunting dogs? Record three pieces of evidence that support this inference.

--

CHAPTER 9

Create

If you were asked to write a title for this chapter, what would you call it? Why? Give text evidence to support your choice.

--

CHAPTER 10

Problem & Solution

Select a problem that arose in this chapter. Describe how it was resolved. Then write a sentence describing another way the characters could have solved this problem.

--

CHAPTER 11

Text Details

What evidence does the author give that supports the inference that Billy is very religious?

CHAPTER 12

Compare & Contrast

Create a Venn diagram to compare and contrast Billy and the Pritchard boys. How are they alike? How are they different?

CHAPTER 13

Analyze Genre

Genre is a way to categorize books based on their features. Based on what you've read, what genre is this book? Identify three pieces of evidence that support your answer.

CHAPTER 14

Context Clues

Context clues help you figure out the meaning of new vocabulary. Record the page you found each word on. Then use the clues in the text to define each word. Explain your reasoning.

tragedy stubble droning codger

CHAPTER 15

Summary

Generate a summary of the chapter you read today. It should focus on the big ideas and have a beginning, middle, and end.

CHAPTER 16Support an Opinion

Do you believe the men in the camp wanted Billy to win? Why or why not? Use text evidence to support your answer.

CHAPTER 17Questioning

At this point in the text, what questions do you still have? Record at least 3 questions in the boxes below.

CHAPTER 18Analyze

Mr. Kyle says, "You can read every day where a dog saved the life of a drowning child, or lay down his life for his master. Some people call this loyalty. I don't. I may be wrong, but I call it love—the deepest kind of love." Do you agree with Mr. Kyle? Why or why not?

CHAPTER 19Theme

A theme is the central message of a novel that is typically short and to the point (1-3 words). Think back over the book. Focus on the central message. What was the theme of this story? Explain your answer with text evidence.

CHAPTER 20Reflect & Rate

Do you like how the author chose to end this book? Why or why not?

After finishing this novel, what would you rate it on a scale of 1 (horrible) to 5 (best book ever)?