Lately there is a joke about Girl Math. Which I find it NOT FUNNY!.

What is Girl Math?

It's an invented set of “rules” that women supposedly keep to when justifying impulse spending. For example, any item under five dollars is considered free, as is anything bought with cash. Concert tickets bought in advance are also free (at least, by the time said concert rolls around).

LATELY THERE IS A JOKE ABOUT GIRL MATH. WHICH I FIND IT NOT FUNNY!

Girl Math is a popular trend in Tik Tok. I am so happy I do not use this social media app. Adding to this I found interested in a quote from an audio book I recently listened to "Girl Stop apologizing" from Rachel Hollis. Thanks public library. Where she says why do we need to put Girl in front of any word such as Girl + Boss, Girl + Science, Girl + Power etc.

And it is true, I mean instead of being equal to a man saying He is a Boss, people we classify me as

She is a Girl + Boss?. Then like a curious person I am. I google the origin and meaning of the word Girl:

“First recorded in 1250–1300; Middle English gurle, girle, gerle “child, young person”; compare Old English gyrela, gi(e)rela “item of dress, apparel” (presumably worn by the young in the late Old English period, and hence used as a metonym)”

I am pretty sure. The women I know do not identify with this word. I will advise any of my women's friends and acquaintances never refer to themselves or to me as a Girl. I am a grown up woman with goals and ambitions, not a GIRL. I am not a child, young person.

So let's just underline the word Girl and add the proper term WOMEN.

What is a woman?

The Oxford definition is an adult female human being.

Girl + Math

Mathematics is a field that knows no gender boundaries. WOMEN can excel in math. It is important to encourage and empower WOMEN to pursue their passion for math and provide them with equal opportunities to succeed. We should encourage and create a world where WOMEN thrive in math and all STEM fields.

Examples of Women in Math:

- Hypatia
- Ada Lovelace
- Sofia Kovalevskaya

Girl + Science

Science is another area where WOMEN have immense potential. WOMEN that explore scientific concepts, conduct experiments, and engage in hands-on learning can ignite their curiosity and passion for the subject. By nurturing their interest in science and providing them with role models and mentorship, we can empower WOMEN to pursue careers in scientific research, innovation, and discovery.

Examples of Women in Science:

- Marie Skłodowska Curie
- Jane Goodall
- Dorothy Hodgkin

Girl + Technology

In today's digital age, technology plays a crucial role in shaping our world. It is essential to empower WOMEN to become creators, innovators, and leaders in technology. By providing them with opportunities to learn coding, programming, and other technical skills, we can bridge the gender gap in the tech industry.

Examples of Women in Technology:

- Ada Lovelace
- Grace Hopper
- Hedy Lamarr

Girl + Engineering

Engineering offers endless possibilities for creativity, problem-solving, and making a positive impact on society. WOMEN who explore engineering disciplines such as civil, mechanical, electrical, and biomedical can open doors to exciting and fulfilling careers.

Examples of Women in Engineering:

- Edith Clarke
- Lillian Moller Gilbreth
- Hedy Lamarr

As you can appreciate above, there are WOMEN in history who path our walk. Do you think these women were called Girls?. They had issues and problems to be successful. Let's make them proud and follow our dreams and ambitions, as the adult female we are!.

BARBIE AND THE WOMEN EMPOWERMENT

BARBIE & WOMEN EMPOWERMENT

We know Barbie. Barbie was my toy as a child. I had her car, her dream house, and a few Barbies and a Ken. I created stories about friendship, and love. According to Mattel Barbie is an example for girl to be whoever you want to be. However, many people just think that Barbie is a blond dummy girl, that only encourages bad habits in girls. Remember the famous song of the 90's from Aqua: "I'm a blonde bimbo girl in a fantasy world."

Barbie was just an idea from her creator Ruth Handler. Who become a big success. I guess we can thank her daughter Barbara. Since Ruth's idea came watching her daughter played with paper dolls. In fact, the only dolls selling at that time were babies dolls, which only enforced the idea of girls becoming mothers in the future. I guess the idea that girls can become whatever they want is something that Barbie wanted to implement. But, I don't think it started that way because of the patriarchy.

It is true now Barbie is more open to everything. Mattel sell Barbies with diverse types of bodies, and careers. Mattel has created the role model category. In this category, you can find Barbies inspired by real women such as Naomi Osaka: Tennis Champion, Japan, Zendaya: Actress and Singer, USA, Lorena Ochoa: Professional Golfer, Mexico and others.

One thing that resonated with me was the speech by Gloria from the Barbie movie:

"It is literally impossible to be a woman. You are so beautiful, and so smart, and it kills me that you don't think you're good enough. Like, we have to always be extraordinary, but somehow we're always doing it wrong.

BARBIE & WOMEN EMPOWERMENT

"You have to be thin, but not too thin. And you can never say you want to be thin. You have to say you want to be healthy, but also you have to be thin. You have to have money, but you can't ask for money because that's crass. You have to be a boss, but you can't be mean. You have to lead, but you can't squash other people's ideas. You're supposed to love being a mother, but don't talk about your kids all the damn time. You have to be a career woman but also always be looking out for other people. You have to answer for men's bad behavior, which is insane, but if you point that out, you're accused of complaining. You're supposed to stay pretty for men, but not so pretty that you tempt them too much or that you threaten other women because you're supposed to be a part of the sisterhood.

"But always stand out and always be grateful. But never forget that the system is rigged. So find a way to acknowledge that but also always be grateful. You have to never get old, never be rude, never show off, never be selfish, never fall down, never fail, never show fear, never get out of line. It's too hard! It's too contradictory and nobody gives you a medal or says thank you! And it turns out in fact that not only are you doing everything wrong, but also everything is your fault.

"I'm just so tired of watching myself and every single other woman tie herself into knots so that people will like us. And if all of that is also true for a doll just representing women, then I don't even know."
