BUBBA League Week 13 - End of Regular Season

The last regular season weekend brought some surprises.

The Mississippi Mad Men, under new ownership, won two out of their last three games, including this weeks victim, RoadKill Gang.

The DiamondBacks pasted the Who Dats to claim the final Super Bowl Playoff spot.

Maluminse snapped the Hairy Polis winning streak by denying him his 10th victory of the season.

And the Virginia Gentlemen, needing to beat BlackJack and hope for a Relentless Punisher win, got lucky and claimed the Masters Division based upon the points scored tie breaker. Showtime needed six points to claim the crown in his first season, but the Manning meltdown prevented a win.

Next week, playing to advance into the semi finals of the BUBBA League Super Bowl are:

Maluminse
Showtime
BlackJack
DiamondBacks

Having byes: Hairy Polis and Virginia Gentlemen

Two teams with the highest point totals advance.

In the other bowl:

Mississippi Mad Men
RoadKill Gang
Relentless Punishers
Who Dats

Two teams that score the least, advance to see who brings the beer next season.

Good Luck, gentlemen.

In the Toilet Bowl, Mark Sander's and his Relentless Punishers did the unheard of, by losing back to back final games.

Because of his "extraordinary" feat, the Toilet "trophy" now has a name:
"The Mark Sanders Memorial Steamer Award".

BUBBA League 2001 Super Bowl

Gents join Who Dats as two time winner!!!!

To those who wrote off the Virginia Gentlemen after a 0-2 start.....

Faulk you.....

That makes the third time in four years that the BUBBA League Super Bowl champ has had Marshall on their team.

The guy is awesome...

What a wild and crazy season.

From almost having no season, after the core of our league dropped, we ended up having a great group of guys carry on the BUBBA League tradition. Even Randy couldn't stay away.

The Commish thanks the new team owners and the "old guard" for making 2001 fun.

A special thanks to Mr. Craft who subbed for the Commish for two weeks.
