

2006 BUBBA League Season

The 2006 season started out similar to the 2005 season. Trades were flying left and right as teams jockeyed for draft position. Also, the used of a website to tally the scores, record waivers and in season trades and to post smack was in use for the first time in the 14 years of BUBBA League existence.

RoadKill Gang seeming could not fine a trade partner, until draft day neared.

Based on his Larry Johnson keeper, The Devil was the favorite to be the first for back-to-back championships.

Unlike after the 2005 draft, Showtime and Black Jack did not pull off a blockbuster trade. In hindsight, maybe both should have....

RoadKill and the Grove Rats finished first in their respected divisions.

2006 BUBBA League Bizzard but True - the Trinity's Hairy Polis started the season 5-0, but failed to make the Super Bowl Playoffs.

In week 13, Showtime guaranteed a victory over VA Gents. So confident, he even promised to by the Gents lunch if the Gman won. While he failed to show for the lunch, Showtime did pay up his bet.
