Sample pages from Words I Use When I Write

The page contains a series of horizontal lines for handwriting practice. At the top, there are two lines forming a narrow band. In the center of this band, the letter 'L' is drawn. Below this band, there are two columns of lines. Each column consists of 12 horizontal lines, providing a space for writing. A large, light-colored watermark with the word 'Sample' is oriented diagonally across the center of the page, overlapping the two columns of lines.
