

Nicole Wright

Nicole is an AKC Scent Work judge and is approved to judge Farm Dog, CGC/CGCA/CGCU, Temperament Testing, Trick Dog, and FETCH. She is also actively involved in organizations that support canine activities, including NACSW, UKC, and International Parkour. She is part of the Virginia Tech Spotted Lantern Fly K9 Citizen Scientist study and has trained her dogs to recognize this invasive species.

When not teaching, Nicole competes with her Dalmatians, one who is a Grand-Champion Owner-Handled and both hold titles in Rally, Obedience, Farm Dog, Trick Dog, Coaching Certification, and the CGC programs. Her dog Teuila was the seventh Dalmatian to achieve the coveted AKC Scent Work Detective title.

Nicole is the proud owner of Pets Love 2 Play in Hubbard, Oregon, where students are trained across multiple disciplines, including Scent Work STAR Puppy, Family & Trick Dog. She loves engaging with those interested in canine activities and building a strong bond with like-minded individuals.
