The Emperor of Time

A Genesis Way Execution Worksheet

Perspective Before Execution

- “Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.” Psalm 90:12
 - Time is not random. It is entrusted. God created time, placed you inside it, and assigned work for you to finish within it.
 - You cannot control how long you live. But you can control how intentionally you live.
 - This worksheet is not about productivity. It is about stewardship.
 - You are not managing a calendar. You are stewarding a calling.

The Emperor of Time Declaration: My life is disciplined and focused. God has entrusted me with time. I will determine my days through prayer, clarity, and obedience. I will not surrender my time to distraction, pressure, or fear. I will protect what matters, release what doesn't, and finish what God has given me to do. Time works for me because it belongs to Him.

Reflection — Season Awareness (Answer honestly. No overthinking.)

What season of life am I in right now?

(Discovery / Building / Leading / Finishing / Transition)

What must be finished in this season?

What must be released in this season?

What deserves my best energy right now?

The Execution Grid

- Dump It → Shape It → Fill It → Execute
- This page turns intention into action.
- For each domain, write the one assignment that matters most right now.

Domain	Priority Assignment	Deadline	First Action Step
1.Spiritual
2. Family
3. Career
4. Physical
5. Mental
6. Social
7. Financial

Rule: If everything is a priority, nothing is.

Choose one to focus on now.

6-Month Finish Line – What must be accomplished in the next 6 months?

1-Year Finish Line – What must be true one year from now?

Boundaries for Completion

To finish well, something must stop.

I will stop:

I will protect:

I will finish:

The Commission

Genesis shows us the pattern:

- God formed.
- God filled.
- God finished.
- Then, God rested.

You are called to the same RHYTHM.

You do not drift into completion.
You run toward it.

“Run in such a way as to get the prize.” 1 Corinthians 9:24

Closing Declaration

Write this by hand:

- I will run in such a way as to win.
- My time belongs to God.
- I will finish what He entrusted to me.
