

So far in The Genesis Way, you've cleared the clutter, given your life shape, and established rhythm and boundaries. This week is where everything starts to move. Genesis shows us that God never forms space just to leave it empty—once creation was shaped, God filled it with life, beauty, and purpose. Empty space never stays empty. If you don't decide what fills your life, something else will—usually urgency, distraction, or someone else's priorities.

Today is about moving from preparation to action. Filling isn't about being busy; it's about being obedient. You're invited to intentionally place the activities, responsibilities, and assignments God has already prepared for you into the space you've created. This is where clarity becomes obedience, and intention turns into mission.

QUESTIONS

Read SCRIPTURE: GENESIS 1:11-31. As you read, look specifically for order, blessing, and purpose as God fills what He has already formed.

1. WHY DO YOU THINK GOD CHOSE TO FILL CREATION ONLY AFTER SHAPING IT FIRST? WHAT DOES THAT ORDER TEACH US ABOUT HOW GOD INTENDS OUR LIVES TO WORK?
2. WHERE ARE YOU MOST TEMPTED TO CONFUSE BEING BUSY WITH BEING FRUITFUL? WHAT ACTIVITIES FEEL PRODUCTIVE BUT MAY NOT ACTUALLY BE PRODUCING THE FRUIT GOD INTENDS?
3. LOOKING AT THE ZIGLAR WHEEL OF LIFE, WHICH SPOKE MOST CLEARLY NEEDS INTENTIONAL FILLING RIGHT NOW—SPIRITUAL, FAMILY, CAREER, PHYSICAL, MENTAL, SOCIAL, OR FINANCIAL? WHAT IS ONE SIMPLE, CONCRETE ACTION YOU COULD TAKE THIS WEEK TO BEGIN FILLING THAT SPACE?
4. WHAT CHANGES WHEN YOU SEE FILLING YOUR TIME AS OBEDIENCE RATHER THAN OBLIGATION? HOW DOES THAT SHIFT YOUR MOTIVATION, PRESSURE LEVEL, OR SENSE OF PURPOSE?
5. AS YOU LOOK BACK OVER DUMP IT → SHAPE IT → FILL IT, WHAT HAS GOD BEEN REVEALING TO YOU ABOUT HOW YOU'VE BEEN USING YOUR TIME?

NEXT STEPS / CHALLENGE: DON'T FILL CHAOS. FILL WHAT YOU HAVE SHAPED.
