Course Description: THE IMPACT OF WORLD CLIMATE ON THE FUTURE CHURCH
(7-Week Course) PHI-305 and PHI-505

This study of the future church is not about prophecy; it is about possibilities. The pace of change is accelerating in the Information Age. Christian leaders face ministry problems that are unprecedented and unpredictable. This interdisciplinary form of study focuses on postulation (theory), probable and preferable futures, through the analysis of biblical Scriptures, theological critique, patterns, current events, and trends.

Prerequisite: None

Course Objectives:

- A. Increase knowledge and sensitivity to changes in the 21st Century Church and improve understanding of the future.
- B. Build confidence as leaders in facing the uncertain future of the Hybrid Church.
- C. Build on Biblical understanding about the future church, with watchful preparation.

By the end of this course, you should:

1. Be able to acquire core competencies of foresight
2. Cope effectively as leaders and laymen to exercise foresight to expect the unexpected and prepare for changes as they happen.
3. Understand how to wisely leverage the digital ministry for growth in evangelism.
