- Communicate regarding your policies
- Improve our website and customer experience
- Detect fraud and maintain security
- Comply with applicable laws and regulations

3. Information Sharing

We do not sell your personal information.

We may share information with:

- Insurance carriers
- General agencies and underwriting partners
- Licensed service providers assisting our business operations
- Government agencies or regulators when required by law
- Other parties with your authorization

All third parties are expected to protect your information appropriately.

4. Cookies and Tracking Technologies

Our website may use cookies and similar technologies to:

- Improve website functionality
- Analyze website traffic
- Enhance user experience

You can disable cookies through your browser settings, although some website features may not function properly.

5. Data Security

We maintain reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect personal information against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

Although we strive to protect your information, no method of internet transmission or electronic storage is completely secure.

6. Your Privacy Rights

If you are a Florida resident, you may have certain privacy rights under applicable Florida law.

You may request to:

- Access certain personal information we maintain
- Correct inaccurate information where applicable
- Ask questions regarding how your information is used

We will respond to requests as required by applicable law.

7. Third-Party Websites

Our website may contain links to third-party websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of those websites.

8. Children's Privacy

Our website is not directed toward children under the age of 13, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children.

9. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any revisions will be posted on this page with an updated Effective Date.
