Thank you for supporting the Gregory Gardens Gator Bites Program! Gator Bites recognize students for demonstrating our Gator Values through kindness, responsibility, respect, perseverance, and positive citizenship.

How Gator Bites Work

Throughout the school year, students earn Gator Bites from teachers and staff for making positive choices at school. Students may:

- Save their Gator Bites for larger rewards, or
- Redeem them during the monthly reward cycle.

How to Redeem Gator Bites

1. When your child is ready to redeem a reward, simply place their Gator Bites in a small plastic bag (such as a sandwich or snack-size bag) along with a note that includes:

- Student's first and last name
- Teacher's name and classroom number
- Total number of Gator Bites enclosed
- Reward they would like to redeem

Seal the bag and have your child give it to their teacher by the monthly Turn-In Day (Tuesday). Please make sure all information is included. Missing information may delay your child's reward.

2. Turn In the Redemption Bag

Students should give their completed redemption bag to their teacher by the monthly Turn-In Day (Tuesday).

3. Receive Their Reward

School volunteers will verify Gator Bite totals, prepare rewards, and deliver them to classrooms on Friday of the same week.

Helpful Reminders

- Students may save Gator Bites from month to month to earn larger rewards.
- Be sure each redemption bag includes the student's name, teacher, classroom number, total Gator Bites, and reward selection.
- Redemption bags received after the Tuesday deadline will be processed during the next monthly reward cycle.
- Students should only submit a redemption bag when they are ready to redeem a reward.

Thank you for helping us celebrate the kindness, responsibility, leadership, and positive choices our Gregory Gardens Gators demonstrate every day!

Note: Gator Bites do not carry over to the next school year. Be sure to redeem all Gator Bites by the end of the school year.
